GRIFFITH JOHNSON
b. Mar 7, 1735 d. Dec 23, 1805 bur. Old Town, Allegany Co., Md.

Griffith was born, it is thought, in the western areas of Virginia or Maryland. He lived most of his life in Allegany Count, Maryland.

At the time of the French and Indian Wars, the early 1750's Griffith was a member of Captain Stewart's Light Horse Body Guards, a Virginia military unit, giving credence to the thoughts that Griffith's youth was spent in Virginia.

Griffith was with Colonel George Washington's troops in Jun, 1755 supporting General Edward Braddock on his fatal attempt to capture Fort Duquese (Fort Pitt - Pittsburgh PA) and was in the battle of Monongahela or Braddock's Ambush and Defeat.

The French and Indian Wars were offically over in 1763, however, the Indians continued their attachs and raids on the British and American outer frontiers. These raids and attacks as a group were known as the Pontiac Wars or Pontiac's Conspiracy.

It is reported that Griffith was in the Fight at Bloody Bridge, sometimes called Battle of Bloody Run, near Fort Detroit. See JH-LL- 4 to 7

Between his military service, Griffith found time to marry and raise a family. He was, by trade a silversmith and owned a farm near Cumberland, Maryland which he named "Betsy's Choice"

The Revolutionary War commenced and Griffith returned to his countries service. On Dec 3, 1776 he was commissioned a Captain in the Maryland Militia from Washington County, MD. Allegany County had not yet been formed and being those lands just west of Washington County was part of Washington County.

He was recommissioned on Jun 22, 1778 in the Third Battalion of the Maryland Militia, sometimes called the Western Battalion.

Griffith died in Allegany County and is buried at Old Town. Old Town orginally was an Indian Town called "King Opessa's Town" then it was called Skipton, then Twiggville and then Old Town.

Griffith married Elizabeth Thomas (b. ea 1732 Mont. Co. MD. d. 1790 Old Town, Allegany Co., MD.), a Quaker of Montgomery County, MD. They were married in 1759.

Griffith and Elizabeth had thirteen children:-

JAMES ARMSTRONG JOHNSON

b. May 28, 1857 d. May 6, 1940

James was born at Ripley, Brown County, Ohio and his youth there.

In latter years, James Armstrong was called "J.A.". J.A. came to live with his daughter and the author (grandson) got to know him well. He related several rememberable stores of his youth which I will repeat here.

As a very young child he could remember the slave bounty coming to Ripley in search of runaway slaves. He also remembered being disciplined by threats of being given to the "slave hunters" Slave hunting was a profession up till the passage of the XII Amendment (slavery abolished) in 1865. There were still slaves in Kentucky even after the Emancipation Proclamation in Jan 1863.

J.A. remembered Morgan's Raid of the Civil War. He was six at the time and remembered the arrival of the river Gunboats on the Ohio River that were trying to block Morgans return to Kentucky. He was taken down to the Ripley Public Landing to inspect the boats.

John Hunt Morgan's, 2nd Kentucky Cavalry crossed the Ohio River into Indiana from Kentucky on Jul 8, 1863. By Jul 13 the raid had turned from an attack to a chase by the Union Troops trying to run Morgan to ground. Morgan was sticking close to the Ohio River going East or upstream trying to return to the safer Kentucky. On Jul 14, Morgan had just made a night march past Cincinnati, Ohio and at Williamsburg, Ohio he split his command, sending a detachment under his brother Col.Richard Morgan to see if it were possible to cross the river at Ripley. The Union Ironclads were lined up a Ripley and all Richard Morgan could do is return to the main column and continue East.

When Ripley was threatened with invasion and possible battle James was confined to home and saw nothing of the Rebels.

In 1868, General Ulysses S. Grant was nominated for and was running for the Presidency. General Grant made a campaign tour by riverboat on the Ohio and it stopped at Ripley. JA's older half-brother George knew the General and the Grant Family and he took James to meet the General. James met the General and shook hands with him.

James was employed by the Dean & Kite Co. (china and dishware) of Cincinnati, OH as traveling salesman in the southern Ohio area. It was during his employment as a "drummer" that he was in a severe train wreck. It was standard procedure to attach to a freight train a passenger car on the rear. The train was called a "local" and would go from town to town, stopping to switch off those cars for that town then coupling up to the passenger car and go on to the next town. During one of these stops, J.A. was sitting in the passenger car when a through train piled into the passenger car sitting on the main line.

J.A. came to under the express engine and remained pinned there for hours until a heavy duty crane arrived to remove the wrecked engine. J.A. had a very mangled left leg, which he was lucky keep and which healed slightly shorter than his other leg giving him a slight limp.

J.A. left Dean & Kite to go into business with a group of Dean & Kite employees to form the Cincinnati Glass and Crockery Company in 1899, he was the Vice President.

During this period with Dean & Kite and the Cincinnati Glass companies he and his family lived in Arlington Heights, Hamilton County, a suburb of Cincinnati, Ohio. J.A. was elected and served as one of the first "City Trustees" and it was he that proposed the name Arlington for the town. This name was refused by the Federal Post Office because there was already an Arlington. Ohio. "Heights" was added to the name and it was the acceptable.

In 1908 J.A. and his family moved to Middletown, Butler County, Ohio where he purchased a hardware business on Central Avenue. He retired from the hardware business in 1930.

From 1930 till 1939 he lived with his daughter Bessie and her family. When, for business reasons Bessie had to move to Chicago, IL, J.A. moved back to Middletown where he died. He is buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati, Ohio.

BESSIE LEROY JOHNSON
b. Feb 12, 1884 d. Mar 2, 1964

Bessie was born in Carthage, Hamilton County, Ohio. She went to Public School at Arlington Heights and graduated from Hartwell High School in 1902. Bessie was part of the graduation program and the newspapers reported on Bessie, "Rhymes of Childhood was the work of a finished elocutionist." During her high school years and two years after she took courses at and graduated from the Schuster Martin School of the Drama.

Bessie married in 1908 and gave up any theatrical ambitions to pursue the role of housewife and mother. After her marriage, she and her husband lived breifly in Norwood (Cincinnati), Ohio and then moved to Middletown, OH where her husband went into the hardware business with Bessie's father. It was here that both of her sons were born, William in Middletown and Thomas in Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, OH.

In 1923 Bessie and her family moved to Grand Rapids, Michigan where her husband engaged in the lampshade business associated with the furniture businesses there.

Through the years Bessie was identified with the Little Theatre in Cincinnati, Middletown and Grand Rapids. She was the founder of the Little Theatre in Grand Rapids, MI.

The great depression ruined the lampshade business and the family returned to Terrace Park, near Cincinnati, Ohio. He husband died in 1933 leaving Bessie with a 11 year old and 17 year old sons to raise and a household to maintain. Bessie returned to dramatics and became a member of the faculty and the director of the Little Childrens Theatre at the Schuster Martin School of the Drama.

In this period of the thirties the commerical radio was growing. Procter and Gamble, the large soap manufacturer in Cincinnati, found the 15 minute dramatic continuing stories on radio sold soap and thus were born the "Soap Operas". The Crosley Corp. owned the local radio station, WLW, and this was the outlet for these Soap Operas. With as many at 10 to 15 shows being aired each day there was a great need for actors and actresses.

Bessie started working these shows on a part time basis, however the demand was so great that Bessie was hired as a full time actress. She played many rolls which the radio audiences of those days would well remember.

In 1939 and 1940 labor problems developed at the WLW Station and the newly formed Radio Actors Guild was forced to strike. The outlook of the strike indicated to Procter and Gamble that the would not clear up rapidly and so they moved all their shows to Chicago, Il. This ended the strike for most all the actors and actresses moved north with the programs.

Bessie moved to Chicago in 1940. The Soap Opera business was not to stay long in Chicago and by 1943 most of the shows had moved to New York or to Hollywood. Bessie's two regular shows, "Helen Trent" and "Woman in White" moved to New York City and Bessie followed.

Bessie continued her radio career in New York City and in her later years Television. She work up her sudden death at the age of 80 yrs.

Thomas A. McCammon

Bessie McCammon recieved a letter in 1938 from Dr., Nurse, Deaconess Eliza
Jane Dickey about the Irish Quinns
Jane Quinn Dickey [b. 7 Jan 1831 d 15 Jul 1940]. and her Granddaugher, Eliza Jane Dickey visited "Uncle" John in 1882. Some of her letter follows:

John (Senior, 2 Gen) was dead and 'Uncle' John Quinn now owned the house.

John (Senior) Quinn was a banker. His address was Drumcaw, Newbliss, County Monaghan, Ireland.

On the adjoining farm lived Cousins Tom and John. Jane Wilson was Sister to Ann Wilson the mother of Cousins Tom and John."

Eliza Jane describes the home as follows:

"The house was of stone, two stories, the roof of the period of Queen Ann's reign, the walls were about three foot thick, there a lane in front of the house bedecked with flowers and shrubbery. A closely trimmed hawthorn hedge enclose a meadow which was opposite the house where Uncle John pastured his cow.

The interior was a very comfortable and pretty deep set windows were curtained with pretty white Swiss curtains, most dainty, the sideboard was filled with English China. In the center of the house was a large fireplace where all the cooking was done by means of a hanging crane. The large living room was well lighted and comfortable. Uncle John rested on a highbacked bench near the fireplace which also formed a hallway into the dinning room where there was also an open fireplace and a high mantle piece on which where two silver candlesticks. The room was furnished with a mahogany table and chairs and a high floor clock.

" There was a nice little housekeeper, she occupied a pretty bedroom upstairs, her bed, a four poster bed with a valance from the mattress to the floor and also one around the canopy. On her table the at the bedside was a Bible and a candlestick with a snuffer and she was a very nice little person. This is where my dear Mother was born.

"She left home when she was nineteen coming to her brother who was in America.

"Mother and I spent two months with Uncle John in 1882. My Grandfather and (Grand) mother are buried in the little graveyard, Killeeban Cemetery.

"My Grandfather commanded the respect of the people both rich and poor,he held a position in the bank He had a farm was well to do, spent summers on the Continent, died at 47. Grandmother lived to be 81 years.

"Uncle John never married but took care of the farm. Thomas and John Quinn inherited the farm. Their Father and Uncle John were first Cousins and mothers sisters."[Jane Wilson (2 Gen) Quinn & ?? Wilson Quinn]

[from another letter] "John Quinn's [Senior] wife was Jane Wilson and John and Jane were married in 1819"
Another letter Letter, " 'Uncle John' Quinn was John (Sr. 2 Gen) Quinn's 1st Cousin. This leads to many scenerios in the earlier generations to fit the critera.
(1.) Uncle John Quinn was a bachlor. Therefore not father of Tom and John that Dickeys talked about. Tombstone Quinns were not these generation.
(2.) Two Johns in one family improbable.
(3.) The Grandmother prombably willed the estate to Uncle John Quinn and in turn to Cousin Tom and John.

WILLIAM A. MOORE

DIED AT HIS HOME HERE LAST FRIDAY EVENING.

Mr. W. A. Moore died at his home on Main street last Friday evening at 9 o'clock, after an illness of about a month's duration of lung trouble.

He was buried Sunday afternoon from the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Wm. Best officiating.

The remains were followed to Maplewood by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, where the funeral services of the Grand Army of the Republic were conducted by W. Wirt Liggett Post No. 145, of which he was a member.

The funeral procession was one of the longest ever seen here, and was headed by the Ripley Band, followed by Wirt Liggett Post, Gen. Jacob Ammen Camp, S. of V., Ladies' Aid Society and friends in carriages.

MEMOIR.

We give place to the following brief memoir prepared by a friend:

The subject of this brief memoir William Allan Moore, whose burial is the occasion of this assemblage of bereaved relatives and mourning friends, is too well known to all of you to require an extended biography. His daily life for the past thirty years in this village of Ripley has been as an open book that all could read. His various associations, both commercial and social, have shown the character of the inner man far better than any brief chronicler could hope to do, and now when his body lies encoffined before us, and his spirit is in the keeping of its creator, it will be to him of no import whether fulsome eulogy or adverse criticism be pronounced at his funeral service, yet to the living, a few words of remembrance from one who knew him long and intimately and loved him well, will surely not seem out of place.

William Allan Moore, son of Shary and Sally Flaugher Moore, was born in Huntington township, Brown county, Ohio, upon the 17th day of March, 1841. He was the seventh of a family of nine children, four boys and five girls. His parents were residents throughout their lives of this county and his grandparents, more particularly upon his mother's side, were of a large connection of pioneer people who were such important factors in instead of regretting his sacrifice, rather seemed to glory in it and to take especial pleasure in recalling to memory the many phases of camp life.

On return to civil life, in the fall of 1866, he entered the hardware business, first with the firm of Espy & Williams, and remained connected with the various succeeding firms of A. King & Co., King & Leggett and A. King, until he became associated in partnership with his last employer, under the firm name of Andrew King & Co. After a season he withdrew from active business and entered the Ripley National Bank, where he remained many years a familiar and important figure in banking circles. Being warned by a severe and protracted spell of illness that too close application to business would become immediately disastrous, he severed his connection with the bank and engaged himself, until his last illness, in the more active pursuit of soliciting insurance.

Under the ministry of Rev. D. C. Bierce, he united with the Presbyterian Church in Ripley, and for many years was the Secretary and Treasurer of the church and Sunday School.

Upon the 19th of December, 1872, he was united in marriage to Miss Phoebe Durstine, who survives to mourn his loss, a daughter being the only fruit of this union.

In his last illness he was a great sufferer, yet he bore it with patience and fortitude, for he was a brave man and knew how to best bear the ills and perplexities of life. He was fully aware of the gravity of his situation regarding health, and well knew that of hope of living much longer in this world, there was none, yet he never for one moment seemed to repine or blanch in the face of the inevitable. He parted with life without a struggle at 9 o'clock p. m., Friday, Feb. 1st, 1895.

When in health he was of a sunny disposition, cheerful always, and ready to contribute his share to the general enjoyment of life. Of envy or malevolence he had not one grain in his disposition. He never in his life wilfully did one act to cause unhappiness in others. In this short paper it is impossible to express adequately an estimate of his gentle character and many virtues. All who knew him knew them. It is enough to say that William Allan Moore did not have, nor ought he to have had, one enemy in the world.

the settlement of the new and bare known country west of the mountains, and were not by any means the least active of those who wrested this now peaceful valley of the Ohio from its native wilderness and savagery. His early life was passed much in the same manner as is incident to the pursuit of tilling the soil, the winter months being passed in the district school and those of summer in assisting his father and elder brothers in the usual routine of farm work.

When about 14 years of age his father and family removed to this place. and with the exception of brief intervals, Ripley was his home until death. On taking residence he at once assumed his place in the Union schools, and as an ever-diligent and capable student, passed through the entire course as prescribed at that time. It was the privilege of the writer of this, as his seat-mate in school, to make an acquaintance with him that was to extend through nearly forty years of friendship, unbroken or marred by a single act upon the part of the deceased that could be construed other than a friendly action. It was during this school life that he formed the larger part of that acquaintance upon which in after life he chiefly rested for companionship.

From the school room to the breaking out of the Civil War, his life was uneventful. During the early years of this war he was restrained from taking part in it, by the serious demands made upon his energies by the business of his father, but later his affairs had so shifted that he was enabled to follow his inclination, and on the 14th of February, 1864, enlisted as a Trumpeter in Troop "I," 11th Regiment of Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, recruited for especial service in the Northwest. The Indian tribes of that section through rumors of disaster to the Government from rebellion, were in a state of disquietude and activity, a condition which required a strong hand and prompt action. For two years and five months he was engaged as a soldier upon active service in repressing disorder and pacifying hostile bands of Indians. He was discharged from this service July 11th, 1866. His soldiering was arduous in the extreme, as is the rule in Indian warfare, the campaigns were prosecuted chiefly during the winter months. His field of operations extended through the high latitudes of the North Platte, Republican and Rosebud rivers, around Forts Laramie and Bridger, and as far west as the foot hills of the Rocky mountains. This rough campaigning through rigorous winters served to break his once vigorous constitution, and to sow the seeds of the insidious disease which ultimately carried him to his grave. He gave to his country all he had to offer, his health, his rugged manhood, and largely his future prospects in life. He was a patriot from sense of duty, and

ON THE DEATH OF W. A. MOORE.

The Presbyterian Church was filled [illegible] at the services last Sabbath, large and deeply [illegible] audiences attending the regular morning services, the funeral services of Mr. W. A. Moore in the afternoon, and the song services in the evening.

The Sabbath School was also well attended, and the following resolutions reported by Messrs. M. L. Kirkpatrick and Chambers Baird, a committee appointed by the Supt. on the death of Mr. Moore, Secretary and Treasurer, were read and adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

In the death of brother Wm. A. Moore, for more than twenty-five years Secretary and Treasurer, who died Feb. 1, 1895, in the 54th year of his age, this Sabbath School deeply mourns the loss of a faithful and efficient officer and an honored Christian gentleman. His warm sympathies, high principles, blameless life and amiable character have commanded the constant respect and won the cordial regard of his many friends in this scoool and church, which he served so long and well, and have greatly endeared him to our affection and remembrance. His memory will ever be fondly cherished in our hearts and be honorably preserved on our records.

To his bereaved wife and daughter, loyal members of our church and school, we extend our tender sympathy, and pray that heavenly comfort and consolation may be given them in this time of their great loss and sorrow.

Ripley, O., Feb. 3, 1895.

RESOLUTIONS.

To W. Wirt Liggett Post, G. A. R., Ripley, O.

We, your Committee, report as follows:

Our Comrade William A. Moore departed this life Friday, Feb. 1, 1895, and was buried by the officers and members of the Post, Sunday, February 3. 1895, in Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio.

The last said rites have been performed and we report for your adoption, the following Resolutions of Respect:

Resolved, that by his death this Post has lost a useful, genial and zealous comrade, who, both as member and officer, was ever ready to perform his duties and obligations; his family a loving, faithful and devoted husband and father, and his country a citizen of unswerving patriotic loyalty to its best and highest interests.

Resolved, that we tender to his widow and family our profoundest heartfelt sympathy in their hour of sadness and bereavement.

Resolved, that the Post be draped in mourning; that a copy of these resolutions be conveyed to his family, and a copy furnished our newspapers for publication, and that they be recorded in the minutes.

W. D. YOUNG,
JOHN COSLETT,
W. J. WALL.
Committee.

Adopted by the Post, Feb. 4. 1895.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. W. A. Moore and daughter desire us to return thanks to friends who so kindly assisted them during their late sad bereavement.

Mrs. Benj. Johnson, Mr. John Molony and wife, and James Johnson, all of Cincinnati, were called here last Sunday by the death of Mr. Wm. A. Moore. Mrs. John Henry, of Red Oak, was also present.

Frank Shrivers and wife and Miss King, of Georgetown, were here Sunday, at the funeral of Mr. W. A. Moore.

Mrs. W. H. Kinkead, of Norwood, Ohio, was here Sunday at the funeral of W. A. Moore.

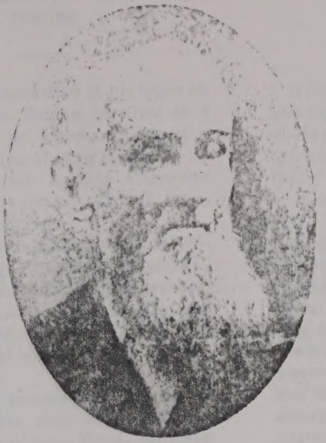
INTERESTING SKETCH

Of the Life of B. F. Johnson, Written by Himself.

Mr. Johnson Celebrated His Eighty-Fourth Birthday Sunday—One of the Oldest Masons in the State.

My parents were Lewis and Mary Johnson, of West Liberty, Ohio county, W. Va. My father's family lived in Maryland, so I have been informed by my mother. I have never had the pleasure of seeing any of my relations, except our own family, which consisted of eight children, four boys and four girls, all being dead except myself, being the youngest. I was born at West Liberty, W. Va., March 2, 1818, lived in Virginia until 1834 when I came to Ripley, Ohio, where a brother was living. I made his home my home until I was married, which marriage took place on the 8th day of March., 1838. My first wife was a daughter of Samuel and Susan Jolly of Ripley, to which union was born two sons and a daughter. The sons are dead, the daughter, Mary Williams, is living at Lexington, Ky. My first wife died in May, 1855, and on the 10th of September, 1856, I was married to my present wife who was the widow of Jacob Sentny, whose maiden name was Moore, a daughter of Sherry and Sarah Moore, long since deceased. I will here relate a circumstance taking place at Ripley on August 28, 1838, when fire was discovered in the hotel kept by William T. Tarbell, father of Judge Tarbell, of Georgetown. The hotel was situated on the corner of Second and Main streets, where Fulton's drug store was afterwards kept. My father-in-law's house stood about four feet from the hotel, both houses having porches fronting on Second street. After the fire had been burning some time I happened to go up on the porch and in looking into a room which was used as a nurse room, I saw a cradle with a child in it. I broke in the door and got cradle and child and carried them to a place of safety. The child proved to be David Tarbell—Judge Tarbell, now living at Georgetown, but who has forgotten his old friend. Such is fate. In August, 1838, James Bennington shot and killed one Laben Bramble. Bennington made his escape and was never captured.



B. F. JOHNSON.

The fire which destroyed the Tarbell hotel burned Mr. Jolly's residence and my little home. It left me without home or money. Mr. Jolly owned a three-story brick house on Front street into which he moved his family. My wife and I moved in with them until I could make some other arrangements. In the fall of 1838 and spring of 1839 Mr. Jolly bought up about sixty-two horses and took them South. I went down on the boat with the horses, but the investment resulted in a loss of several hundred dollars. In the fall of 1839 Mr. Duffield, of Cincinnati, a wealthy pork packer, engaged my father-in-law, Mr. Jolly, to take charge of three flat boats loaded with pork and lard. Mr. Duffield got me to go down as superintendent of cargo. We had a nice trip clear to New Orleans. The pork was consigned to Shropsore & Co., and when we arrived at New Orleans there was brigship for the pork and I checked off the cargo as it was unloaded, everything coming out all right.

I came back to Ripley and made my home there until August 24, 1876, at which time I moved to Huntington township; after living there several years I moved into Jefferson township, where I was elected a Justice of the Peace, and was elected a second time. My commission was sent to Georgetown, but having made arrangements to move to Cincinnati I did not take it out of the Clerk office, until Clerk Tyler came into office when it was turned over to me.

I was appointed Deputy Sheriff under Thomas Middleton and served one term. I was Deputy Sheriff under John Foster, serving one term. I was Deputy Treasurer under John D. White, also Deputy Treasurer under R. J. Bennett, one term, also under B. B. Whiteman, one term. In 1860 I held the office of U. S. Deputy Marshal and was assigned six townships to take the enumeration of and to gather other statistics for Government purposes. In 1850 I held the same office but had only four townships, and under Abraham Lincoln's administration I was deputy United States Assessor under D. H. Murphy, Chief of this district, which office I held until President Lincoln's death. I served several terms as Marshal at Ripley, and was elected and served as Assessor of Union township. Was Constable of the township for fifteen years. That is all of public life now.

I will give you my life as a Mason. In 1841 I was entered, passed and raised to the Sublime degree of Master Mason. My membership has never been severed. From 1841 until August, 1876, I do not think I missed to exceed fifteen meetings, during which time I was a liberal contributor. No Mason in good standing ever applied to me for relief that went away disappointed. In all my failures in business no man ever lost a penny by me. I paid all my debts with one hundred cents to the dollar. Since August 24, 1876, I have not had the pleasure of meeting with Union Lodge, but have paid my dues in advance each year. I was made a Royal Arch Mason some time in 1852 or 53, being the first lodge meeting that Ripley Chapter, No. 82, held, and in the year 1874 I was made a Knight Templar in Maysville Commandery, No. 10, Maysville, Ky. While living in Ripley I attended all funerals that took place in Brown county, and visited all the sick brethren in and about Ripley. In conclusion would say I have always tried to live an honest life.

My second marriage has been blessed with six children, all boys, three of which died in youth; three are living, James A., the oldest, lives at Arlington Heights, Hamilton county; Thaddeus S., who lives on a farm near Greensburg, Ind., and Isaac, who is here in Georgetown, unmarried, and with whom his mother and myself make our home, he being our only support for many years, and to his credit be it said he has supported us well.

WILLIAM A. MOORE

DIED AT HIS HOME HERE LAST FRIDAY EVENING.

Mr. W. A. Moore died at his home on Main street last Friday evening at 9 o'clock, after an illness of about a month's duration of lung trouble.

He was buried Sunday afternoon from the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Wm. Best officiating.

The remains were followed to Maplewood by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, where the funeral services of the Grand Army of the Republic were conducted by W. Wirt Liggett Post No. 145, of which he was a member.

The funeral procession was one of the longest ever seen here, and was headed by the Ripley Band, followed by Wirt Liggett Post, Gen. Jacob Ammen Camp, S. of V., Ladies' Aid Society and friends in carriages.

MEMOIR.

We give place to the following brief memoir prepared by a friend:

The subject of this brief memoir William Allan Moore, whose burial is the occasion of this assemblage of bereaved relatives and mourning friends, is too well known to all of you to require an extended biography. His daily life for the past thirty years in this village of Ripley has been as an open book that all could read. His various associations, both commercial and social, have shown the character of the inner man far better than any brief chronicler could hope to do, and now when his body lies encoffined before us, and his spirit is in the keeping of its creator, it will be to him of no import whether fulsome eulogy or adverse criticism be pronounced at his funeral service, yet to the living, a few words of remembrance from one who knew him long and intimately and loved him well, will surely not seem out of place.

William Allan Moore, son of Shary and Sally Flaugher Moore, was born in Huntington township, Brown county, Ohio, upon the 17th day of March, 1841. He was the seventh of a family of nine children, four boys and five girls. His parents were residents throughout their lives of this county and his grandparents, more particularly upon his mother's side, were of a large connection of pioneer people who were such important factors in the settlement of the new and bare known country west of the mountains, and were not by any means the least active of those who wrested this now peaceful valley of the Ohio from its native wilderness and savagery. His early life was passed much in the same manner as is incident to the pursuit of tilling the soil, the winter months being passed in the district school and those of summer in assisting his father and elder brothers in the usual routine of farm work.

When about 14 years of age his father and family removed to this place. and with the exception of brief intervals, Ripley was his home until death. On taking residence he at once assumed his place in the Union schools, and as an ever-diligent and capable student, passed through the entire course as prescribed at that time. It was the privilege of the writer of this, as his seat-mate in school, to make an acquaintance with him that was to extend through nearly forty years of friendship, unbroken or marred by a single act upon the part of the deceased that could be construed other than a friendly action. It was during this school life that he formed the larger part of that acquaintance upon which in after life he chiefly rested for companionship.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM ALLEN MOORE
b. Mar 17, 1841 d. Feb 1, 1895

From the school room to the breaking out of the Civil War, his life was uneventful. During the early years of this war he was restrained from taking part in it, by the serious demands made upon his energies by the business of his father, but later his affairs had so shifted that he was enabled to follow his inclination, and on the 14th of February, 1864, enlisted as a Trumpeter in Troop "I," 11th Regiment of Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, recruited for especial service in the Northwest. The Indian tribes of that section through rumors of disaster to the Government from rebellion, were in a state of disquietude and activity, a condition which required a strong hand and prompt action. For two years and five months he was engaged as a soldier upon active service in repressing disorder and pacifying hostile bands of Indians. He was discharged from this service July 11th, 1866. His soldiering was arduous in the extreme, as is the rule in Indian warfare, the campaigns were prosecuted chiefly during the winter months. His field of operations extended through the high latitudes of the North Platte, Republican and Rosebud rivers, around Forts Laramie and Bridger, and as far west as the foot hills of the Rocky mountains. This rough campaigning through rigorous winters served to break his once vigorous constitution, and to sow the seeds of the insidious disease which ultimately carried him to his grave. He gave to his country all he had to offer, his health, his rugged manhood, and largely his future prospects in life. He was a patriot from sense of duty, and instead of regretting his sacrifice, rather seemed to glory in it and to take especial pleasure in recalling to memory the many phases of camp life.

On return to civil life, in the fall of 1866, he entered the hardware business, first with the firm of Espy & Williams, and remained connected with the various succeeding firms of A. King & Co., King & Leggett and A. King, until he became associated in partnership with his last employer, under the firm name of Andrew King & Co. After a season he withdrew from active business and entered the Ripley National Bank, where he remained many years a familiar and important figure in banking circles. Being warned by a severe and protracted spell of illness that too close application to business would become immediately disastrous, he severed his connection with the bank and engaged himself, until his last illness, in the more active pursuit of soliciting insurance.

Under the ministry of Rev. D. C. Bierce, he united with the Presbyterian Church in Ripley, and for many years was the Secretary and Treasurer of the church and Sunday School.

Upon the 19th of December, 1872, he was united in marriage to Miss Phoebe Durstine, who survives to mourn his loss, a daughter being the only fruit of this union.

In his last illness he was a great sufferer, yet he bore it with patience and fortitude, for he was a brave man and knew how to best bear the ills and perplexities of life. He was fully aware of the gravity of his situation regarding health, and well knew that of hope of living much longer in this world, there was none, yet he never for one moment seemed to repine or blanch in the face of the inevitable. He parted with life without a struggle at 9 o'clock p. m., Friday, Feb. 1st, 1895.

When in health he was of a sunny disposition, cheerful always, and ready to contribute his share to the general enjoyment of life. Of envy or malevolence he had not one grain in his disposition. He never in his life wilfully did one act to cause unhappiness in others. In this short paper it is impossible to express adequately an estimate of his gentle character and many virtues. All who knew him knew them. It is enough to say that William Allan Moore did not have, nor ought he to have had, one enemy in the world. L.

ON THE DEATH OF W. A. MOORE.

The Presbyterian Church was filled [illegible]ple at the services last Sabbath, large and deeply [illegible] audiences attending the regular morning services, the funeral services of Mr. W. A. Moore in the afternoon, and the song services in the evening.

The Sabbath School was also well attended, and the following resolutions reported by Messrs. M. L. Kirkpatrick and Chambers Baird, a committee appointed by the Supt. on the death of Mr. Moore, Secretary and Treasurer, were read and adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

In the death of brother Wm. A. Moore, for more than twenty-five years Secretary and Treasurer, who died Feb. 1, 1895, in the 54th year of his age, this Sabbath School deeply mourns the loss of a faithful and efficient officer and an honored Christian gentleman. His warm sympathies, high principles, blameless life and amiable character have commanded the constant respect and won the cordial regard of his many friends in this scoool and church, which he served so long and well, and have greatly endeared him to our affection and remembrance. His memory will ever be fondly cherished in our hearts and be honorably preserved on our records.

To his bereaved wife and daughter, loyal members of our church and school, we extend our tender sympathy, and pray that heavenly comfort and consolation may be given them in this time of their great loss and sorrow.

Ripley, O., Feb. 3, 1895.

RESOLUTIONS.

To W. Wirt Liggett Post, G. A. R., Ripley, O.

We, your Committee, report as follows:

Our Comrade William A. Moore departed this life Friday, Feb. 1, 1895, and was buried by the officers and members of the Post, Sunday, February 3. 1895, in Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio.

The last said rites have been performed and we report for your adoption, the following Resolutions of Respect:

Resolved, that by his death this Post has lost a useful, genial and zealous comrade, who, both as member and officer, was ever ready to perform his duties and obligations; his family a loving, faithful and devoted husband and father, and his country a citizen of unswerving patriotic loyalty to its best and highest interests.

Resolved, that we tender to his widow and family our profoundest heartfelt sympathy in their hour of sadness and bereavement.

Resolved, that the Post be draped in mourning; that a copy of these resolutions be conveyed to his family, and a copy furnished our newspapers for publication, and that they be recorded in the minutes.

W. D. YOUNG,
JOHN COSLETT,
W. J. WALL,
Committee.

Adopted by the Post, Feb. 4. 1895.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. W. A. Moore and daughter desire us to return thanks to friends who so kindly assisted them during their late sad bereavement.

Mrs. Benj. Johnson, Mr. John Molony and wife, and James Johnson, all of Cincinnati, were called here last Sunday by the death of Mr. Wm. A. Moore. Mrs. John Henry, of Red Oak, was also present.

Frank Shrivers and wife and Miss King, of Georgetown, were here Sunday, at the funerel of Mr. W. A. Moore.

Mrs. W. H. Kinkead, of Norwood, Ohio, was here Sunday at the funeral of W. A. Moore.

Obituary.

JOHNSON—Amanda Moore Johnson was born near Ripley, Ohio, January 24, 1834, and died at her home in Georgetown, February 26, 1906. She was a daughter of Shory and Sarah Moore, and she with a sister, who survives, are the last of a family of nine, the father and brothers for many years being well-known business men of Ripley. She was twice married. Her first husband was Jacob Sentenney. By this marriage she was the mother of two children, who with their father were laid to rest long ago. She was united in marriage to Benjamin F Johnson, September 1, 1856. To this union were born six sons, three of whom, James A., of Cincinnati, Isaac N., of Georgetown and Thaddeus S., of Greensburg, Indiana, are left to mourn for a devoted mother. In her early girlhood she was converted and for more than half a century lived a consistent Christian, ever enjoying the peace and blessings that come to those who engage in the service of the Master; and it seemed that the mainstay of her religous life was her earnest belief in the power of prayer. For several years she had made her home in Georgetown, and since the death of her husband in 1902 she has been in failing health. Her son, Isaac, has been ever faithful and thoughtful in his care of the mother who has for so long been his companion, administering to her every want, making any sacrifice that might add to her comfort and happiness.

What comfort, when with clouds of woe
The heart is burdened, and must weep,
To feel that pain must end,—to know
"He giveth his beloved sleep."

When in the midday march we meet
The outstreched shadows of the night,
The promise, how divinely sweet,
"At eventide, it shall be light."

RECORDS OF ULSTERS
OFFICE

Dear Mrs. Helton,

I recieved a copy of your letter to Jean Jolly. My name is Mary Henke & I put out the "Joll(e)y Researcher". Jean sent me the copy of your letter to her because it showed you needed some updateing on your Jolly line.

The Research group spent a great deal of time on this line, Mary Collier who is a member & has been since it's conception, made several trips to Ohio & Pa. & came back with oodles of documents (129 land records alone) then she came to Phoenix & we spent several days going over her material & with her & several other members help I put out our findings in our quarterly. I am sending you several pages from that issue. Im afraid I made a boo-boo & pages 26 & 27 are reversed & I didn't notice it untill I got back home, but I want to send it on anyway.

I wish I could say we have this line all straightened out but Im afraid we can't. It has taken several years just to correct the mistakes that were in print but were are off on the right foot this time anyway.

We believe the Jolly's as well as the Wisnors were from Lancaster Pa. & did spend some time in Hagerstown Md. before going to Mason Co.Ky.(just across the river from Brown Co.Ohio) Alexander married Sarah Kay there & Isaac Kay married a "Miss Wisnor". The Kays were also from Lancaster & they all appear to have traveled together. In time the moved into Adams Co.Ohio,part of which was cut off to make Brown Co. The land records show they owned land in Mason Co.Ky. for some time after they started buying land in Brown Co.Ohio. Thomas by the way was the son of Alexander. He died early (1828) at age 32 & earlier researchers finding the death date & not the birth date assumed he was the same age as Alexander.

Have you been in contact with Mrs. Connie Thiede,2039 So.Ventura,Springfield Mo.65804 ? She is about the most knowledgable person I know of on the Wisnor line & I think it would be worth your while to contact her if you havn't already.

I hope this will be of some help to you.

As Ever,

Mary Henke

Vol.2 Issue 2

THE JOLL(e)Y RESEARCHER

Dear Researchers,

This has been the most difficult issue I have ever tried to get out. I have had so much good research come in I really hated to put it aside, but I must. Call it a "Crusade" if you will, I just feel this is necessary.

This issue will step on a few toes, make some angry and though I have had help from some of our members locating some of the books listed, for their own protection, will remain nameless, but I do thank them.

Please ! Read this section over carefully, study it, learn from it And use that knowledge in all your research on all your different lines. The fact the line we have under discussion has no connection with you, doesn't matter it is simply an example.

The problem is "Published Genealogies", they pick up errors printed in one book, carry it to the next with a few embelishments, that are carried to the next one and in time the entire Genealogy is worthless. The latest problem is copyrights, all the later books carry them, so you have to tread lightly. I have found though, that a "Book Review" is legal and there is no law that says a Book Review has to be favorable.

The main thing I want to get across to you is, when you find a published Genealogy on one of your lines, check the source list. Take down the sources and CHECK THEM YOURSELF, you will often find impressive source lists are worthless as you will see from book # 1 on my upcoming Book List. If the sources are from personal corespondance with other researchers, forget it it's just guess work and if the book lists no sources at all, don't even bother to read it. You will save yourself years of grief from trudging down the wrong road if you follow thisrule. I have had to learn the hard way & have in recient months had to start from scratch on lines I thought I had finished to immigrant ancestor.

The subject for this object lesson is the genealogy of "Rev. Thomas Jolly" of Maryland. As it stands now I have to say this family sheet is a figment of someones over active imagination. I believe in an open mind however, so I will make this challenge,

> "If anyone can come forward with one scrap of primary proof Rev. Thomas Jolly of Maryland ever existed or the childrens list are actualy his. I will gladly print a retraction and see that every major library in the country gets a copy.."

Ps. before we get started with this, I know many of you are wondering what happened to our pretty cover. Last issue I goofed on the number of sheets 12 sheets (24pgs.) go for 37¢ postage. 13 sheets brings it up to 57¢. 20¢ doesn't seem like much but when you multiply that by 60 you have $12.00 extra postage. Something had to go. The cover I thought would be better than a page of research. As I started a new Vol. that way I decided to leave it that way & use that extra page for research every issue.

As Ever,

Mary H

The Source = list for Book # 1= which I checked.

New England History Vol.60 = No Jollys mentioned
History of Early settlement & Indian Wars, DeHass 1851= ha William Darby's story about Wolf's Fort (see Manual) And the David Jolly Sr. story (massacre at Wheeling) only he called him Daniel

History of West Virginia Panhandle by Newton,Nichols & Spa 1879= contain Not one single mention of the surname Joll(except in the Dickerson letter; see Vol.2 issue 1 p.11 F

Now you tell me, how do these sources prove Rev. Thomas came to Md. or The English branch of the family ? There were members of the English Joll(e)y in Maryland from 1662 on, several families. It is true, David,Thomas,Alexander were all members of "THe JOLLY FAMILY" in the broad sense but this book is very misleading. It doesn't say they were all brothers, but it does say the were all from Maryland. & the inference is there.

To continue,

Book # 2, Highland Pioneer Sketches & Family Genealogies by Elsie Johnson
Ayers = 1971

This appears to be the book that all this is coming from. She quotes no sources of any kind. several passages in the book are almost word for word with book # 1 except names are inserted. Two examples are, in the paragraph about the Jolly's settling in Maryland, where book #1, states the "English Branch of the Family", Book # 2 states "Rev. Thomas Jolly". The second one I will quote directly because it is shorter.

Book #1
P. 28, Pleasent Twp. Early settlers in this Twp. Alexander Jolly and Neil and Joseph Washburn.

Book # 2
P.879, Other members of the Jolly family were early settlers in Brown and Clermont Counties. Were friends of Neil Washburn and brothers Thomas and Alexander Jolly, brothers of David Jolly Sr.

When a book comes on the market without a single source listed & contains lines & paragraphs like the above, I have no choice but to challenge it's authenticity.

Book # 3= This is an interesting one. It is a Journal, written in England by a Rev. Thomas Jolly. It contains nothing but Church affairs, no personal history. It is in the back room of the Fort Wayne Library and has been checked. It would appear that some member of his family at least carried this journal to America & was living in Ind. when it was donated to the Library... but this in not necessarly so.The reason is another book of which I have a copy.

Book # 4 =The Jolly Family of Standish,Gorton And Altham by Henry Fishwick
This is a very well documented work, all primary sources. The Pedigre of this family is in the Manual. It lists no person coming to Americ though it traces three generations forward from Rev. Thomas. The interesting thing however is on page 24 of the introduction. where it is stated Rev. Thomas's nephew took over his holdings & distroyed many of his manuscripts. The rest along with his library were sold at auction in London. So now we have no idea who bought that Journal and brought it to America.

Thelast thing on the original source list for this family sheet. Is the statement that Rev. Thomas came to America 1749 on the ship "Brothers" with Adam Creekbaum. We have never found a sailing for the ship "Brothers" prior to 1750. We did locate a sailing of the ship "Albany" from Rotterdam, Germany in Sept.1749 bound for Penna. On this passenger list are the names of Adam,Philip & Welhelm Kreicbaum (Creekbaum) There is no one with the surname Jolly on that passenger list.

I am now going to list some books I checked in hopes of finding something on this line.

Book # 5=History of Brown Co.Ohio, by Beers 1883
P. 609, Thomas Jolly of Virginia, married Lucy Gardner and settled in Jefferson Twp. Brown Co.
P, 415, Alexander Jolly of Maryland was an original settler in Union Twp. Brown Co.

Book #6 = The Draper Collection = had the story of the death of Judge Henry Jolly, by Wm.Darby (see Manual)

Book # 7 =History of Ross & Highlands Co's Ohio = had the David Jolly massacre story & showed David on a tax list. Philip on a milita list.

Book # 8 =Sidelights of Maryland History by Dorsey Richardson = Nothing

Book # 9 = Maryland Wills, State Archives = Nothing
Book #10 = Maryland Colonial & Rev. Records by Bruenbaugh = Nothing

You can see we have nothing so far on Rev. Thomas Jolly but one book, devoid of source or documentation.
So,what do we have on the Children ? Lets take them one at a time.

CHILDREN

1, David Sr. This is a thorn in a lot of sides. His birthdate has been listed 1732 & 1739 & death 1799 & 1804 & wives Mary Killey & Elizabeth Kelly. I doubt very much if a man living in Md. would go to Northampton Pa. to join the army. Also he is still on Capt. Clinedenes payroll in 178 when David Sr. & Jr. are on the tax lists of Wash.Co.Pa. No marrige has ever been found between a David & either of above mentioned ladies. David Jolly, born 1732 in New Jersey, son of William & Hannah(Watson)Jolly disapears from the New Jersey records in 1769. We havn't found a David born in 1739 in the records. deathdate of 1799 I don't know where that came from either. It is in an Ohio History Book. no location listed. The David Jolly Sr., the one who was in the famous Massacre on the Wheeling died in 1804 in Ross Co.Ohio. we have his will & he names all of his sons-in-law's & they match up with the massacre stories & William Darby's statement in the Valentine papers. If this David is the same one that was in Northampton Milita is unknown, but doubtfull.

2, John , No information on him, he might be the John of Hartford,Md.

3, Susanna, I have not seen documentation on her birth (28 seems a little late for a first marriage) Jacob Wisnor's pension papers say he was from Lancaster,Pa. There is documentation of their marriage in Wash.Co. Md.If it wasn't for that birth date I would surmise she was the daug. of Benjamin Jolly & Susanna Robinett of Wash.Co.Md. but they wern't married untill 1759.

4, Catherine, here again no proof of anything except marriage.

5, Henry, we all know Henry was the son of Peter of Wash Co.Pa. I think I covered that completely last issue. I am standing on his sig. matching on the Adm; of Peter & his personal letters in the Valentine papers also his mother Martha & sister Martha & bro. William were living with him in Ohio Co.W/Va. after the estate was settled.

6, Martha, no information. (this must be Henry's sister)

7, Alexander, birthdate I think comes from the fact he was eligible for the milita, Bedford Co. Milford Twp. 1785 1785-21=1764. Of course I don't know what the draft age was them, in 1820 it was 16/18. S.O.R. records show Alexander married Sarah McKay 1790 & died in 1803 & was the son of David Sr. Alex. was in Fayette Co.Union Twp. 1790 (Pa.) married with two sons under 16. so that date is wrong. Alex is no longer in the Pa. records after 1790 & I have not found the name in Md. records either. We assume this is the Alexander who went to Brown Co.Ohio ca. 1805 . If so his will says his wife is named Sarah & is dated 1833. The Ohio Histories say his wife was Sarah Kay & that he was from Md.

8, Thomas, married Mary Decock, 3,Mar. 1785 Wash.Co.Md. That is the only record we have found for Thomas. The Brown & Clermont Counties History says Thomas & Mary did settle in Brown Co. & have the following children.

1, John -md- Cassandra Smith
2, Susan, -md- John Savage
3, Mary, -md- John J.Newmann
4, Samuel -md- Susanna Creekbaum

According to Adams Co.Mg. records, Eleanor, daughter of Alexander married John Savage & Samuel was the son of Alexander. There is a record of a John married to a Cassandra Smith that we havn't placed Mary & Susan we havn't found. Thomas has not appeared on an tax or land record in Adams Co. or Brown when it was taken from Adam's It is really quite doubtfull Thomas & Mary even settled in the area

The Ship "BROTHERS"

This ship made regular trips from Rotterdam,Germany from 1850 on. & were able to locate the passenger list for Adam,Wilhelm & Philip Creekbaum. There were no Jolly's on that list. We have never found a list for 1749. Anyway you look at it, the Jolly's would notbe comeing from Germany, or did a English sounding name appear on these lists to give one an idea they ever took on passengers from English speaking Counteries. Also according to Luthern Church records, the three Creekbaum brothers, settled in Berks Co.Pa. not Maryland.

ALEXANDER'S WILL dated 24,Oct.1832 Brown Co.Ohio

Wife, Sarah

Children,

John
Polly Dowers or Devers
William
Elizabeth Sherry
Philip
Samuel
Jacob

Grandchildren

Heirs of my son Thomas Dec'd
Rebecca Burget

So Alexander's son Thomas died prior to 1832. He may be the Thomas the Brown & Clermont History Book got mixed up with Thomas & Mary though that Thomas would have been older than Alexander, judgeing from marriage dates.

There is no mention of Eleanor in this will. She married in 1812,she could have had a married daughter in 1832. I doubt if she was a daughter of Thomas as Alexander said "heirs of" in his case a G.daug. she was as there is a legacy to a grandaughter Rebecca Burget.

Nowfor Samuel's Will   dated 18,Nov.1863 Georgetown,Brown Co.Ohio
No wife is listed

Children

1, Samuel F
2, Alexander
Also daughter-in-law, Lucinda, wife of Alexander *   (see p.~~30~~ 29)
Grandchildren George & Mary Johnson **

Philip lived to be quite old. His wife made a will in 1881, giving their farm to their daughter Francis when she & Philip are both dead, Providing she takes care of them both untill then.

I have seen Philips death date as 1885 but not primary proof

So now we have two contradictory genealogies. The one on Thomas & Mary, we were not given any sources to check so we will have to run them down our selves.. Judging from the wills it would appear Samuel & Philip are brothers... but he didn't say "bro.Philip" so it's still guess work. And we don't dare make a guess as if we do & guess wrong we have another goofed up genealogy.

SO WHAT DO WE HAVE IN THE WAY OF PRIMARY PROOF ON MARYLAND JOLLY'S ?

To deviate for just a minute, in checking ship passenger lists, like Filby's etc. most just give names, date of arrival & sometimes the Ship they came on. More often than not they don't tell where the passengers boarded, only from where the ship started from. It was not unusul for persons in Va. to go by boat to Maryland,Delaware or Pennsylvania as the inland roads were next to impassable & often dangerous. We have this happen with George & Isabell to Md. in 1673. I have seen their names on many lists but only one, that tells their starting point. I am now begining to wonder if Edward & Margret of St. Mary's Co. Md. might not also be from Va. My reasoning is the names Thomas,Edward,Margaret & margery showing up together over & over. But let me show you;

On page 36, this issue is a Joseph Jolly who was a witt; to a land sale in163 Charles River Co.Va. this is now York, right on the river. Most lists show Joseph & Margaret as arriving in 1636. This is not so. Joseph was here at least by 1633, he sent for his wife in 1636

SPECULATION:

Thomas & Edward, showing up so often in the same families in the same time spans leads me to speculate that Joseph Jolly & Margery or Margaret (the name is seen both ways) could have, or their children could have moved west to Charles City Co. & one or more sons gone north to St.Mary's Co. Md. I of course am just speculating, but it does seem quite possible.

I really hate to start delving into the real early records of Va. as the name Jolley & Jolliffee, particulary in Norfolk Co.Va. seem to be pretty mixed up. Member # 3 sent me the Genealogy of the Jolleff family (here again there is a doz. spellings) but the will of the immigrnat of that family & some land records also,have the name spelled Jolley. So we are now going to open up a whole new can of worms & we have enough trouble already !

But, let us get back to the subject at hand, The Joll(e)y's of Maryland.

Thats It Folks ! 3 years of casual research, 3 months of Solid research & that is all I was able to come up with. Where do these genealogies come from ? They surely don't just dream them up. Records are missread often enough I have seen that. It is possible someone heard about Rev. Thomas Jolly , saw the Journal & came to the conclusion he came to America with out checking it out. But the ship "Brothers" in Sept. 1749 ? Why can't any one find that ? I just can't believe someone would just make that up.

I really truly hope someone does come forward to accept my challeng; but I am not really very hopefull.

David Jolly/Jolley, it is spelled both ways in Capt. Clindenes pay records was in the army from 1780-85 or there are some records missing. If he was " A First Class"? I don't know what that means, Pvt. First Class ? At any rate he was not an officer. If he was born 1732 it would mean he was in the army between the ages of 48 & 53 or if he was born 1739 he would have been between 40 & 45 Either way it seems a little old to be in service if you were not a career soldier.

Another problem; Wash.Co.Pa. tax list for Nottingham Twp. 1785

David Jolly Sr. & David Jr. are both on this list. David Jr. is listed as " A single freeman" That means " An unmarried man over age 21. We have David Jr.'s birthdate as 1786, so he was 17 at this tax date of 1785 or we have his birthdate wrong.

It was not unusual for tax & census takers to tack a Jr. on the name of a younger man who has the same name as another in his area. Sometimes they are father & son, sometimes nephew & at times not even related.

I am not stating this to be a fact, but it is something to think about. There was a David with Thomas & Samuel in Westmoreland Co. He didn't go with them to Vanango & Butler & in the 1792 Tax list of Ohio Co.W/Va. we have three David Jolly's Sr.,Jr. & one just David. Some of the Jolly/ McConnel researchers claim David Sr. had a nephew David. WHAT IF, the David Jr. in the Wash. Co.Pa records is the nephew & the real David Jr. is still at home. Then they all went to the Wheeling area & it was the nephew David that died in 1799 ? " just something to think about."

(All brothers & sisters mentioned are children of John Jolley of Hartford Co.Maryland.)

A while back in a letter to # 3 I made the comment," I thought it was strange that there wasn't more published on Mayberry (Mayburry) Jolly . This is a man who worked his way up to Major in the Rev. War & yet I couldn't even find him in a DAR index & I was beginging to wonder if he had ever married." Susan made a trip to Salt lake reciently & in the package of goodies she sent me was a couple of pages from an unknown book.(No title page) In the chapter she sent the subject was the Gulph Mill in Lower Merion Twp. Montgomery Co.Pa. It looks like a real good book as they are quoting from stated public records & it seems Charles Jolly bought this mill by deed in Aug.1770. Tells of his marriage to Catherine Mayburry (I have also seen it mebury & Mayberry) in 1752. She was the daughter of Thomas Mayburry an iron-master. One of the first settlers of Malborough Twp. where he purchased 1200 acres in 1742. Catherine also had a brother Thomas Jr. who married in 1766 in Phil. MM, Rebecca Warder. You remember Sophia that married Charles Jolly & Rebecca that married John Jolly at Falkners Swamp, were neices of Catherne, Thomas & Rebecca are most likely their parents.

The most interesting thing about this artical though, is that, Mayburry as the eldest, son petitions orphan's court for the Mill property which he does get, but not before a court fight brought by John Lang, son-in-law of charles (Margaret Jolly & John Lang were md. 3,Sept. 1774 in Phil.) And here is the kicker ! Charles & Catherine had 10 children 9 of them fighting Mayburry ALONG WITH the three children of a former wife. WOW! that about takes care of all the Jolly's in So. Eastern Pa. Thank You so much # 3 p.378; On the 23d of February 1893,Mr. Rickerson was united in marriage to MISS MARY E. JOLLEY, who was born in Colfax township,Dallas County Iowa,January 13,1862, a daughter of LEWIS & ELIZABETH (SOWASH) JOLLEY. Her paternal grandparents were JOHN & HANNAH (COOK) JOLLEY, the former a prominent man in Ohio during anti-slavery days. He was a man of literary tastes and attainments, possessed a liberal education for that time and in 1795 he wrote a treatise on mathematics, which is still in existance in manuscript form. He taught school,did surveying and kept accounts for farmers and was regarded as the educated man of his settlement for miles around in Union Co.Ohio. He died at the age of seventy-eight years.

LEWIS JOLLEY, the father of Mrs. Rickerson, was born in Union Co.Ohio, December 21,1827, and was a carpenter by trade. He came to Adel (Dallas Co.Iowa) in 1855 and in this city, on the 12th of February 1857, he was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Young, whose maiden name was Sowash and who was born in Allegheny Co.Pennsylvania, January 11,1823. The death of LEWIS JOLLEY occurred November 19,1887, and his wife survived untill September 24,1902. Only two members of their family are now living, JASPER L. and MARY E.(JOLLEY) Rickerson.

Will

Samuel Jolly's Will

Be it remembered, that on the 23d day of day of April A.D 1864, the Last Will and Testament, of Samuell Jolly dec.d late of Union township, in said county, was produced in Court, by Alexander Jolly one of the Executors named, therein, and John McCague, one of the Subscribing Witnesses, to said Will, appeared and in open Court, testified on oath to the execution of the same, and his testimony being reduced to writing and by him subscribed, was ordered to be filed with said Will. And afterwards, on the 6th day of May, A.D 1864, Philip Jolly, also a subscribing witness, to said Will appeared, and in open Court, on oath testified, to the execution of the said Will and his testimony being reduced to writing, and by him subscribed, was ordered to be filed with said Will. And it appearing to the Court, by the testimony of said Witnesses, that said Will was executed, and attested, in all respects, in conformity, to the law, in force, at the time of the execution of the same, and that the said Samuel Jolly, then was more than twenty one years of age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint: It is ordered, that the said Will, together with the testimony of said Witnesses be recorded, Which said Last Will and Testament is in the words & figures following: "Know all men, by these presents, that I Samuel Jolly, of Union township, Brown County Ohio, do make and publish this my last will and testament. First, It is my will that all my just debts, and all charges be paid out of my estate. Second, I give and devise, to each of my grand children, George Johnson, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, in money, to be paid, as soon as my estate is fully settled up, but if either or both of said grand children should die, before my estate is fully settled up, then the share or shares of such deceased grand child or children, or children, I give and devise, to my sons Alexander Jolly and Samuel F. Jolly equally. Third, I give and devise to Lucinia Jolly, the wife of my Son Alexander Jolly, one bed, bedstead & bedding, one bureau, one trunk and one stand, the same, that is now, in my son Alexander's house, in Hestoria. Fourth, I give and devise equally to my sons, Alexander Jolly and Samuel F. Jolly, all the rest, residue and remainder, of my estate, both real and personal, of every description whatsoever. Fifth, I appoint and make Alexander Jolly & Philip

Jolly, Executrix of this my last will and testament. I desire, that no appraisement, and no sale, of my personal property be made and that the Court of Probate direct the omission of the same in pursuance of the Statute. In testimony hereof, I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this 18th day of November, A.D. 1863, Samuel Jolly (L.S.) Signed and acknowledged, by said Samuel Jolly, as his Last Will and Testament, in our presence; and signed by us in his presence. John McCague, Philip Jolly". And the testimony of said Witnesses, ordered to be recorded with said Will, is in the words and figures following: "Probate Court Brown County, State of Ohio. Personally appeared, in open Court, John McCague, one of the Witnesses, to the written instrument, produced, in Court, as the Last Will & Testament of Samuel Jolly, decd, who, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith, that said written instrument, now shown, to him, was executed and subscribed, by the said Samuel Jolly, in the presence, of this affiant, and declared by him by him, to be his Last Will & Testament; and that he, affiant, subscribed said instrument, as a Witness, in the presence, and at the request of the said Samuel Jolly; and that the said Samuel Jolly, at the time of the execution of said instrument, was more than twenty one years of age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint. John McCague. Sworn to and subscribed in open Court, by the said John McCague, this 23d day of April A.D 1864, Charles F. Campbell Probate Judge". "Probate Court, Brown County, Ohio. Personally appeared, in open Court, Philip Jolly, one of the subscribing witnesses, to the instrument, produced in Court, as the Last Will and Testament, of Samuel Jolly subscribe his name to said instrument and heard his declare the same, to be his last will and testament, and that he the said Witness signed said instrument, in the presence and at the request of the said Samuel Jolly. and that at the time of executing said instrument, the said Samuel Jolly was more, than twenty one years, of age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint to his knowledge. Philip Jolly. Sworn to and subscribed, in open Court, this 6th day of May 1864 Charles F. Campbell Probate Judge rible night, and proceeding to Mr. Mitchel's, saw Mary, too weak to move; and it was several days more before she could be taken home. Mary became the wife of Wm. Weaver, and was highly esteemed for her many good qualities. The remainder of the family married as follows: Nancy, Benjamin Troy; Margaret, John Wageman; Elizabeth, Jeremiah Cleveland; Catherine, Samuel Weaver; Charles, Sarah Hulick; Thomas, Margaret Nash; and John M., Sarah Smith.

As Mrs. Robinson possessed some medical knowledge, she was often called upon to visit the sick; and so successful was she in her treatment that she soon had an extended reputation. She was also "mighty in the Scriptures," and was thus enabled to bring healing to the soul as well as to the body. People came for her assistance many miles around, and twice was she called into Kentucky, crossing the Ohio River at night, guided by a small beacon-fire on the opposite shore. Often she went on her mission of mercy alone, following a trace whose dim course was shown by blazed trees, with not a house in sight for many miles. Both of the elder Robinsons belonged to the Methodist Church, and their house was one of the early preaching-places. Mrs. Robinson died July 18, 1835, at the age of sixty-seven years, and her husband survived her until Aug. 13, 1846, when he closed his earthly career at the age of eighty-three years.

John Wageman came to Clermont County in 1808 from North Carolina, and had his home with Robert Townsley until the war of 1812, when he volunteered in a cavalry company. Returning home, he married Margaret Robinson and reared several sons and daughters, who married into the Dial and Whittaker families.

Daniel Duckwall was born in Virginia, March 9, 1789. In the winter of 1813 he came to Ohio on horseback, and three years later married Keziah Dimmitt, settling near her father, and lived here until his death, in 1849. His wife survived him until Aug. 16, 1877. Of their eight children, Phœbe married Thomas Marsh, of Batavia township; Mary, Thomas Fletcher, and removed to Missouri; Moses; Margaret Earick, of Louisville, Ky., who died Aug. 1, 1878; Ezekiel, Mary Robinson; Caroline Jane, Dr. J. M. Witham, of Withamsville; George W., Caroline Lane; John W., Lomira Hall; Martha, the youngest, Jacob Mull, of Adams Co., Ind. The sons all live near Batavia, on the celebrated Duckwall bottoms.

Andrew Apple was among the first settlers of Batavia township. He immigrated from Pennsylvania some time previous to 1798 (the exact date being not now known), and located on a fine tract of land of 2100 acres at and near the present hamlet of Olive Branch. He was very enterprising, and brought with him many implements to lessen the drudgery of labor in a new country, and had one of the first wagons owned in the county. In those days he also had the credit of owning the finest team in the county.

Andrew Apple reared a family of eleven children, giving to each, as they grew to mature years, 150 acres of land in the Olive Branch neighborhood; and at one time the Apple family here was very numerous, but as the country settled up most of them removed to Indiana. Andrew Apple died about 1817, and was interred in the Olive Branch Cemetery. His youngest son, Daniel, was born in 1794, and was therefore five years of age when the family settled in Clermont County. He inherited much of the energy and public spirit which characterized his father, and was for many years one of the leading men of the county. He inherited the old homestead, and lived there until his death, in 1871. Of his family of seven children, two were sons and five daughters, and all are yet living in the county except Keziah, who died many years ago, and was one of the first inhumed in the cemetery at this place. Mary Ann became the wife of Stephen Judd; Elizabeth, of Daniel Holter; and Rebecca, of Nelson Applegate, all living in Batavia township. The two sons were named Samuel T. and John Wesley, and inherited the best traits of their father and grandfather, both being public-spirited and enterprising. The former married Asenath, daughter of William Weaver, and reared three children. The youngest son, William, resides with his father on the old homestead. John Wesley Apple married a daughter of Jeremiah Cleveland and reared five children, all of whom yet reside in Batavia township.

The Townsley brothers—Robert, James, and William—and their sister Margaret came from New Jersey to Batavia about 1800, and settled at different points below the village not exceeding the distance of a mile and a half. Robert lived on the farm now occupied by Ezekiel Duckwall, and kept a licensed tavern there in 1802. Although having a large family, nearly all of them died of consumption, and are interred in a lot on the hill near by the old home. Robert Townsley was one of the leading men of the county in his day, holding important offices. James Townsley married a widow named Millard, whose maiden name was Allison, of Allisonia, and lived in a log cabin in the small meadow near the residence of Thomas Marsh. He was in the war of 1812, and lived in the township until his death, about 1830. The only surviving members of his family are Mrs. Nathan McGuire, of Batavia, and Mrs. Richard Ferree, of Illinois.

James Glancy, nephew of Jesse Glancy, a well-known pioneer of Stonelick, came with his uncle from York Co., Pa., in 1805. He was at that time about fourteen years of age, and after he attained his majority he settled on a tract of land in the northern part of Batavia township, which is at present occupied by his son William. Here he died in 1839. In the same neighborhood resided another of his sons, Joseph, who died in 1849. Another son is a resident of Tate. One of the daughters, Rachel, married Daniel McAffee, and the other, Elizabeth, Samuel Maham, both of Batavia township.

The Lane brothers—Shadrach, Samuel, and Robert—came from North Carolina about the beginning of the present century, and settled in the neighborhood of Olive Branch, where Robert died, in 1843. Seven of his sons attained manhood,—Samuel, Joseph, Shadrach, Nathaniel, Wesley, George, and Daniel. The latter is the only one now living in the county, and is a citizen of Withamsville. He had also four daughters, who married well-known citizens of the county, as follows: Jemima, Joseph Gest; Mary, Dr. Samuel Doughty; Hester, Nathaniel Witham; and Elizabeth, T. J. Cazel.

Samuel Lane had no family, but Shadrach, who was the pioneer merchant of Olive Branch, had two sons—Samuel and John, both deceased,—and three daughters,—Elizabeth, who became the wife of Caleb Dial, and Sarah and Rebecca, both married to members of the Teal family.

The elder Lanes had three sisters who came to Ohio,—Elizabeth became the wife of Malachi Medaris, and died in 1873, at the age of ninety-three years; Sarah married Daniel Apple, of Olive Branch; and the third one, Nathaniel Witham, of Withamsville,—all well-known citizens of Clermont County.

James Hulick, a native of New Jersey, came to Clermont County about 1800, and purchased 200 acres of land on the Temple Survey, one and a half miles northeast from Batavia, preferring this to the bottom-lands because he deemed the locality more healthy. He was a single man, and his journey from his native State was made on horseback. After putting up a cabin and making a small clearing he went back to his old home to bring on his parents, whom he settled on his land in 1803. His father, John Hulick, was a pensioner of the war for independence, and died in Batavia township. James married Rebecca Weaver, and made a home near his aged parents. He was an active, industrious man, and died in 1876, at the age of eighty-nine years. His family consisted of five sons and one daughter. The latter married George R. Wageman, and yet lives five miles south of Batavia. The oldest son, John W., died at the age of thirty-one. Abraham married Irene Stone, and lives in the neighborhood of the homestead. The third son, William W., married Mary Jane Dial, and lives in the neighborhood of Olive Branch. Erastus, the fourth male member of the family, married America Lytle, and lives a mile from the homestead. James, the youngest son, remained on the original farm, whose dimensions he has much increased. He married Elmira Fuller, and has a family of five children. He is noted for his enterprise, and probably did more to secure a railroad for Batavia than any other man. He is a director of the road, and was complimented by having a station named in his honor. All the Hulicks are Methodists, and are warmly interested in the affairs of their church.

Daniel Kidd came from Winchester, Va., to Williamsburgh in 1798. On Jan. 1, 1803, he married Mary Bunton, daughter of Ramoth Bunton, an old Revolutionary soldier, who was among the first settlers of that place; and Polly Bunton and Polly Kain were the first white women in that village, going there with James Kain to cook for the men who built the first cabin at that place. In 1808, Daniel Kidd moved to the farm now occupied by Joseph Kidd, in Batavia township, where he died, in March, 1839. His consort survived him, and lived until Nov. 20, 1876, when she passed away with vigorous mental faculties at the age of almost eighty-eight years. Daniel Kidd was in Capt. Stephen Smith's company in the war of 1812, and his widow was a pensioner. They had but two children,—Jane and Joseph. The former married Sam'l Fitzwater, of the northern part of the township, and both are deceased. Joseph was born the latter part of 1803, and is now one of the oldest native citizens of Clermont County. He has passed the greater part of his life on the homestead, has been four times married, and has had twenty-six children, sixteen of whom are now living.

Joshua Atchley, a native of New Jersey, settled in the eastern part of the township, on the place now occupied by his son Samuel, some time about 1807. He died August, 1869, at the age of seventy years. Besides Samuel, he had sons named John, the proprietor of the Atchley House at Williamsburgh, and William D., living at Pisgah. His daughter Keziah married Washington Foster, and moved to Missouri; and Mary Ann became the wife of Isaac Frazier, of Williamsburgh. John Atchley, a brother of the above, also settled in this part of the township. He died many years ago. His son David is a merchant on the Williamsburgh pike, and Thomas lives near the Elk Lick Mills. Rebecca became the wife of Joseph Marshall, of Pisgah.

Near the same time Nehemiah Mount came from New Jersey and located in the eastern part of the township. His sons were named Stephen, John, and Hezekiah, and his daughters' names were Margaret, Amy, Betsey, and Mary. The last-named son is at present a resident near Batavia.

Peter Harden settled on the present Davidson place, and reared a large family, sons,—named John, Joshua, Andrew, William, and Daniel,—and daughters,—Jane, Sarah, and Lydia. James Chambers, a Revolutionary soldier, was a brother-in-law of Harden, and lived in this part of the county until his death. One of his daughters married Joseph Bown, of this part of the township. Timothy Curlis and John Lukemires were also Harden's relatives and settled about this period (1807) in this locality, and many descendants yet remain. The Maham family, Lewis Davis, Phineas Thomas, the Parker family, and many others whose names appear in the general list were also pioneers in this section.

In 1807, John Weaver, Jr., immigrated from Virginia to Clermont County, and rented a farm from Ezekiel Dimmitt, below Batavia. The following year he purchased a tract of land above the village, at what is now known as the Weaver bottoms. His glowing accounts induced his father, John Weaver, Sr., to follow his son in 1810, and that year he and the remaining seven unmarried members of the family found homes in Batavia township. He purchased 585 acres on the East Fork, and having brought with him considerable means, stock, and farming implements, he was prepared to make some good improvements. At the time of the purchase a small cabin stood on this tract of land, which was occupied by Jacob Slye. He sold his interests to John Weaver for a horse, but failed to move, and the latter then put up a good hewed log house where Simeon Weaver's house now stands, which was occupied by him until about 1830. He died in March, 1831. The death of his wife occurred two years previously. Of their eight children who came to Clermont, five were sons and three daughters, viz.: Susannah, who married John Brazier; Sarah, the wife of Jacob Duckwall; and Rebecca, who married James Hulick,—all of the township of Batavia. The oldest son, John, was married in Virginia to Christinia Miller and had a family of seven children,—William, Lewis, Joseph, John, and J. C., all of whom Ten of these married, and had [illegible] children, sixteen of whom are now living.

Samuel Ashley, a native of Maryland, settled in the western part of the township, on the place now occupied by [illegible], some time about 1807. He died August, 1843, at the age of seventy years. Having married, he had seven sons, John, the proprietor of the Ashley House at Williamsburgh, and William D., George, Hugh. His daughter Sarah married Washington Hughes, and moved to Missouri; and Mary Ann became the wife of Isaac Watson, of Williamsburgh. John Ashley, a brother of the above, also settled in this part of the township. He died many years ago. His son, David, is a merchant on the Williamsburgh pike. [illegible] lives near the Elk Lick Mills. Rebecca became the wife of Joseph Marshall, of Fingal.

Near the same time Nehemiah Hardy came from New Jersey and located in the western part of this township. His sons were named Stephen, John, and Hezekiah, and his daughters' names were Margaret, Mary, Phebe, and Hannah. [illegible] now occupies a portion of the lands.

Peter Hayden settled on the present Hayden place, and reared a large family, sons,—named John, Jacob, Andrew, William, and Daniel,—and daughters, Polly, Sarah, and Clarissa. [illegible], Hayden's father-in-law, was a brother-in-law of Hayden, and lived in this part of the township until his death. One of his daughters married Jacob [illegible] of this part of the township. Timothy Curtis and John [illegible] were also Hayden's relatives, and settled about this period (1807) in this locality, and many descendants now remain. The Martin family, Lewis Davis, William Thomas, the Parker family, and many others whose names appear in the general list were also pioneers in this section.

In 1807, John Wagner, Jr., immigrated from Virginia to Clermont County, and rented a farm from Ezekiel Dimmitt, below Batavia. The following year he purchased a tract of land above the village, in what is now known as the Wagner settlement. His glowing accounts induced his father, John Wagner, Sr., to follow his son in 1810, and that year he and the remaining seven unmarried members of the family found homes in Batavia township. He purchased fifty acres on [illegible] Run, and having brought with him considerable money, goods, and farming implements, he was prepared to make some good improvements. At the time of the purchase a small cabin stood on this tract of land, which was occupied by Jacob Rife. He sold the property to John Wagner, Jr., having determined to move, and [illegible] where Colonel Wagner's [illegible], which was occupied by him until about 1830. He died in March, 1831. The death of his wife occurred [illegible] years previously. Of their eight children who came to Clermont, five were sons and three daughters, viz.: Catharine, who married John Drake; Betsy, the wife of Samuel [illegible]; and Rebecca, who married James [illegible], of the vicinity of Batavia. The oldest son, John, was married in Virginia to [illegible] Miller, and had a family of eleven children,—William, Peter, Joseph, John, Samuel, [illegible], of whom Samuel Long had no family, but [illegible], who was the [illegible] of [illegible]. [illegible]—Samuel and John; and the [illegible],—Elizabeth, who became the wife of Isaac Dick, and Betsey and Rebecca, each married [illegible] Ashley.

The elder Long had [illegible] sisters who came to Ohio.—Elizabeth became the wife of Samuel Nichols, and died in 1849, at the age of seventy-three years; Sarah married Daniel Hyde, of Clear Creek; and the third one, [illegible], married William [illegible], of Williamsburgh,—all of whom were citizens of Clermont County.

James Hulick, a native of New Jersey, came to Clermont County about 1800, and purchased 200 acres of land on the Temple Survey, one and a half miles northeast from Batavia, preferring this to the bottom lands because he deemed the locality more healthy. He was a single man, and his journey from his native State was made on horseback. After putting up a cabin and making a small clearing he went back to his old home to bring on his parents, whom he settled on his land in 1802. His father, John Hulick, was a [illegible] of the war for Independence, and died in Batavia township. James married [illegible], and made a home near his aged parents. He was an active, industrious man, and died in 1876, at the age of eighty-nine years. His family consisted of [illegible] sons and one daughter. The latter married George S. Wagoner, and yet lives five miles north of Batavia. The oldest son, John W., died at the age of [illegible]. Jeremiah married [illegible], and lives in the [illegible] of the township. The third son, William W., married Mary Jane Fee, and lives in the neighborhood of Olive Branch. Thomas, the fourth male member of the family, married Almira Lytle, and lives a mile from the homestead. James, the youngest son, remained on the original farm, which he has much improved. He married Emma Fuller, and has a family of five children. He is considered an enterprising and painstaking farmer, and has done more to secure a railroad for Batavia than any other man. He is a director of the road, and was complimented by having a station named in his honor. All the Hulicks are Methodists, and are actively interested in the affairs of their church.

Daniel Kidd came from [illegible], Va., to Williamsburgh. On Jan. 1, 1807, he married Mary Hayden, daughter of [illegible] Harmon, a Revolutionary soldier, who was among the first settlers of this place; and Polly Hayden and Polly Kidd were the first white women in the village, going there with their parents [illegible] the first cabin in the place. In 1805, Daniel Kidd moved to the farm now occupied by Joseph Kidd, in Batavia township, where he died in March, 1859. His widow survived him, and lived until Jan. 20, 1876, when she passed away with [illegible] mental faculties at the age of almost eighty-eight years. Daniel Kidd was in Capt. Stephen Smith's company in the war of 1812, and his widow was a pensioner. They had but two children,—Jane and Joseph. The former married Samuel Fitzwater, of the northern part of the township, and both are deceased. Joseph was born the latter part of 1808, and is among the oldest native citizens of Clermont County. He has passed the greater part of his life on the homestead, his

THE LANE FAMILY and its origins have been the subject of two studies: one set forth by Mrs. F. C. Montgomery in her typescript "Wells of Baltimore County, Maryland," (at the Md. Hist. Soc.), and the other proposed by A. Russell Slagle, in "Major Samuel Lane (1628-1681): His Ancestry and Some American Descendants," in Maryland Genealogies (346-2:128 ff.) Montgomery states that Samuel Lane the Maryland Settler may be descended as follows:

LANE, JOHN (A), of Hammersmith, d. leaving a will dated 1674, having m. on 5 June 1609, Margery, dau. of George Wells, Alderman of Wycombe, Berks.; John and Margery had one son: SAMUEL, bapt. 29 March 1625 at Hughenden.

Slagle proposes the following line of descent; his theory is supported by abstracts of a number of legal and business proceedings with other early settlers of Maryland and Virginia:
LANE, ROGER (B), apothecary of Hereford, married Beatrix (---) and was bur. on 30 April 1603 leaving a wid. and eight living ch. (ten were born to the couple), baptized between Jan. 1590 and Jan. 1602; one of the sons was: RICHARD, bapt. 27 Aug. 1596.

LANE, RICHARD (C), s. of Roger (B), was bapt. 27 Aug. 1596 and on 14 Dec. 1613 was apprenticed to Nathaniel Thornhull, merchant taylor of London; Richard was admitted a freeman of the Merchant Taylor's Company on 26 Feb. 1620; on 7 Oct. 1623 he married Alice, dau. of Humphrey Carter, at St. Mildred Poultry, London; Alice was bapt. 24 Aug. 1603; her father was a citizen and ironmonger of London; in 1635 Richard and Alice went to the Island of Providence with their three children; Richard and one of the sons were drowned by Aug. 1657, and Alice and son Samuel ret. to Eng., where Alice d. by 22 Oct. 1678; Richard and Alice were the parents of: SAMUEL, b. 1628; JOHN, b. 1631; OZIELL, b. 1632; and MARY, m. William Denne.

LANE, SAMUEL (1), progenitor of the Maryland Lanes, may have been a s. of John (A) (acc. to Montgomery) or a son of Richard (C) (acc. to Slagle); was b. c.1628, and d. in Md. c.1682; m. Margaret, wid. of John Burridge; after Lane's death she m. 3rd, Job Evans; Margaret was a sis. of Francis Mauldin, and a dau. of Grace (---) who m. 1st (---) Mauldin, 2nd William Parker, and 3rd Edward Lloyd; the 1669 will of John Burrage named his w. Margaret and dau. Elizabeth w. of Francis Hutchings; the 1684

FESSENDEN-CHENEY LINEAGE

The Fessenden family came to the colonies from Kent, England and the name can be found on ancient deeds and other documents, as early as the year 1100. The spelling of the name was varied, by lack of knowledge of orthography, but the English rendition was Festynden, Fistinden and also Ffishington. The early trade of the family was that of a "fellmonger", meaning, one who works with skins and furs. This quite possibly could have meant, they worked with sheep skins, wool combing and sheep tending, because the area in which they lived, was a weaving and wool combing center.

The immigrant ancestor to the colonies was John Fessenden and his wife, Jane, settling in the Cambridge, MA area in 1636. He acquired an above average wealth for that day and time and having no children, left his estate to his niece and nephew, Hannah and Nicholas Fessenden, children of his brother Robert, who remained in England. John d. 21 Dec. 1666, and his wife on 13 Jan. 1682. Both bd. in Cambridge, Ma.

Hannah Fessenden, his niece, married John Sewell, son of Henry Sewell of Newbury, MA, in 1674. Nicholas Fessenden, nephew, married Margaret Cheney, dau. of Thomas and Jane (Atkinson) Cheney, and they remained on the estate of his late uncle, John Fessenden.

(Note, MBS: I am told that our Fessenden and Wright ancestors are bd. in the Universalist Church Cem. in Cambridge. That is where Hannah Fessenden and Dr. John Wright were md.)

Story says John, Jr. mvd. Ky to Mason Co. Ky around 1776, (which seems a bit doubtful) where he married and remained until 1790. I don't think many, if any, people were moving into Ohio until around 1800. Ohio was organized at a territory in 1799, included in which was the Indiana section. In 1803 Ohio became a state, 17th in the Union.

S-William Jenkins, Sr. was born in Pennsylvania 70, and died in Brown County, OH Aug. 12, 1856. His wife Hannah Jury was born in Pennsylvania in 1778 and died Dec. 17, 1830, in Brown County, OH.

William owned land in Frederick County, VA, which had once been owned by Lord Fairfax, the original patentee. This land was sold to Jesse Taylor in 1819; after which they evidently lived in Pennsylvania for a time before moving to a large farm in Huntington Township, Brown County, OH around 1822. All their 10 children were born in Virginia except the youngest child, Hannah, who was born in Ohio. When his wife, Hannah, died in 1830 he grubbed out bushes on his property for a burial place for her. Later he gave additional land to create the Hickory Ridge Cemetery. He, his wife, and eight of his children were buried there.

Besides farming, William and Hannah operated a hotel on Hickory Ridge. Their children were: John (1808-1882), Ann Paul (1809-?), Mary (1810-1868), Sarah Hall (1811-1835), Abraham (1811-1835), Eliza Jane Donaldson (1813-1892), Silas (1815-1835), William Jr. (1818-1899), Matilda Chain (1820-1851), and Hannah (1823-1865).

Sometime prior to the making of his will, William had given plots of land to each of his then-living children except for Mary and Hannah who were unmarried and living at home. Some of these plots were in Brown County and some on Suck Run in Adams County. In his will he gave 50 acres of land to a grandson, John Hall, and 50 acres to his wife's brother, Abner Jury, for his lifetime after which it was to pass back to Mary and Hannah. The remainder of his land, around 200 acres, was willed to Mary and Hannah, along with all personal property. Later Mary and Hannah donated land adjacent to the cemetery on which the Hickory Ridge Church was built.

Two of his four sons died in early manhood. His oldest son, John, and wife Winifred had three sons and six daughters. There are no known descendants with the name Jenkins from this line.

William Jr. was married to Olivine Redmon (1822-1860) in 1842. Their children were: Martha Jane Bowman (1845-1915), Minerva A. (1847-1849), Lucinda (1849-1912), William M. (1851-1909), Emma Belle Brumley (1852-1913). Maurice Lane (1854-1942), Henry Lee (1856-1928), Olivine Adamson (1858-1934), and Abner Jury (1860-1940).

Olivine died when Abner Jury was about two weeks old. The older girls kept house for the family until they married and left home. The youngest daughter, Olivine, quit school at age 10 to take over the housekeeping duties for her father and brothers. In 1873 William Jr. married Eliza Butts Carter (1835-1910) and they had three children: Elizabeth Jane Burbage (1874-1948), Aaron (1875-1879), and Edgar (1877-1883).

There are many descendants of William, Sr. and Hannah in Brown or Adams County or elsewhere. Besides the name Jenkins are the names Paul, Donaldson, Tumbleson, Roush, Bowman, Brumley, Bryan, Adamson, Surbage and others who descended from William and Hannah. Submitted by Dorothy Layman (a great-granddaughter of Lucinda Jenkins).

GEORGE JENNINGS-Bible records state George Jennings was born Jan. 8, 1776, in England. He came to America about 1783 as a young lad. George and his wife, Ellen, probably had six children, only two are known; Solomon, (April 24, 1804) and Elizabeth (March 25, 1814) both born Smyrna, Kent County, DE. Elizabeth was baptized Jan. 18, 1820, at St. Peters Church, Smyrna.

When George Jennings died in the spring of 1814, his Kent County probate papers prove that he was a shoemaker with a sizable inventory. The number of beds (six) leads one to realize there were more people in the household than is known.

Ellen Jennings born 1787, Delaware, married again to a Mr. Romney sometime after 1814. (See Solomon Jennings history).

Elizabeth Jennings was married in Delaware to Isaac Colgan and had one daughter Margaret Ellen (May 26, 1836) Smyrna, who married 1860 in Brown County, OH, to Joseph Kirk. Elizabeth married #2 in 1849, Brown County to Aaron Purdum and had four children; John, Sarah, Caroline and George. Elizabeth Purdum and Margaret Kirk are buried in Sardinia Cemetery. Submitted by Eugene Martin Jennings Jr.

JENNINGS-McCLARE-ROSS-Solomon Jennings, son of George, was born in Kent County, DE, April 24, 1804. He married Oct. 1, 1828, in Delaware, to Margaret McClare, daughter of Hugh and Ann McClare. They had three sons: George A., John Andrew and Martin Creedy Jennings, all three born near Smyrna, Kent County, DE.

During a 20 month period in years, 1835 and 1836, a typhoid fever epidemic was rampant. This may be the cause of the death of Margaret (McClare) Jennings, Isaac Cologan (husband of Solomon's sister Elizabeth) and others of the family during that time. It may also be the cause for the move to Ohio in 1836.

Solomon Jennings was married secondly, Aug. 29, 1850, in Brown County, OH to Mrs. Sarah Jane (Ross) Wells (widow of Henry Wells, with two children: Alice and William Wells.) Solomon and Jane had one child: Elizabeth (May 16, 1852) in Brown County. She married Charles E. Griffith (Feb. 25, 1869) Brown County. To this union was born four children: Jennie Lavina Griffith born 1870 married William Prather. Solomon Jennings Griffith born 1872 married Nellie M. Mullen. Orlando Hamilton Griffith born 1875 married Mrs. Luella (Wood) Fenton and Jesse Elwood Griffith born 1878 married Sylvia Dunn.

Charles Griffith died 1901 and Elizabeth (Jennings) Griffith married second George Clinton McFadden in 1908. She died March 7, 1937, and is buried at Rose Hill Cemetery beside her first husband Charles Griffith.

Solomon Jennings owned farms in Washington Township and Lewis Townships until his death April 8, 1878, in Feesburg. Jane died Dec. 16, 1878, and both are buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery, Lewis Township. (See George A. Jennings this volume, eldest son of Solomon Jennings).

Second son of Solomon Jennings was John Andrew Jennings (May 7, 1831) near Smyrna, DE. He was married in Brown County, OH, Dec. 14, 1854, to Sarah A. Carter, daughter of Levi and Rachel Carter in Lewis Township. They raised a family of 10 children: Margaret Ellen born 1855, married Thomas Houser; Martin Carter born 1857, married Lizzie Stayton; Grafton Molen born 1859, unmarried; Levi Douglas born 1861, unmarried; Louella J. born 1863, married Alvin Bolender; George B. born 1865, married Osa Gardner; May Elizabeth born 1867, married James Ware; Sarah Adaline born 1869, married Charlie Shinkle; James Oliver born 1870, married Bessie Hilebroner; and John Andrew born 1874, married Bercha Beckelheimer.

All of this family are buried in Shinkles Ridge Cemetery, except Margaret and Thomas Houser who are buried in Swanie Cemetery, Felicity, OH.

The third son of Solomon Jennings was Martin Creedy Jennings who was born (Oct. 26, 1834) near Smyra, DE. He was married Feb. 25, 1862, in Brown County, OH, to Sarah Emiline Edson, daughter of Rev. Alvin and Margaret (Blackburn) Edson. They raised their family of 14 children on a farm in Lewis Township, Route 221: William, Margaret, Linne (who married a Reeves), Connell (buried Washington, D.C.), Paul, John A., Anna (who married Charles Utter), Sarah Edith (who married Oval Scott), Grover Cleveland (who married Nellie Gillespie), Thurman and four who died young, Minnie, George, Ida May and an infant son. Most of this family are buried in Eden, Higginsport and Confidence Cemeteries. Submitted by L'Vera Jennings Seipelt.

GEORGE A. AND MELVINA (ROSS) JENNINGS-George A. Jennings was born July 24, 1829, near Smyrna, DE, eldest son of Solomon and Margaret (McClare) Jennings. He came to Brown County, OH, with his father and brothers: John Andrew and Martin Creedy, his Aunt Elizabeth (Jennings) Colgan, her daughter, Margaret Ellen, and his grandmother Ellen Romney in 1836 soon after his mother's death. During the Civil War, he was in the Brown County Militia. He was Justice of Peace in Lewis Township for several years after 1872. He purchased a small farm in 1867 near Higginsport, in Lewis Township, on Higgins survey #397, where most of his children were born.

His first marriage in Brown County, Dec. 29, 1853, was to Amanda Frances, daughter of John Overturf. Two children were born: Benjamin Franklin, Oct. 19, 1854, who married 1875 to Nancy Davis; Mary Ellen born Jan. 9, 1857, who married 1880 Alfred Pierce (one son, Elmer, and raised niece Stella Marie).

of George, was born in Kent County, DE, April 24, 1804. He married Dec. 1, 1828 in Delaware, to Margaret McClure, daughter of Hugh and Ann McClure. They had three sons, George A., John Andrew and Martin Crosby Jennings, all three born near Smyrna, Kent County, DE.

During a 22-month period in years, 1835 and 1836, a typhoid fever epidemic was rampant. This may be the cause of the death of Margaret (McClure) Jennings, Isaac Colegan (husband of Solomon's sister Elizabeth) and others of the family during this time. It may also be the cause for the move to Ohio in 1836.

Solomon Jennings was married secondly, Aug. 29, 1850 in Brown County, OH to Mrs. Sarah Jane (Wells) Rigg (widow of Henry Wells), with two children. After [illegible] William Wells's Solomon and Jane had one child: Elizabeth (May 16, 1852) in Brown County. She married Charles E. Griffith (Feb. 25, 1869) Brown County. To this union was born four children: Jennie Lenora Griffith born 1870 married William Frazier; Solomon Jennings Griffith born 1872 married Nellie M. Mullen; Orlando Hamilton Griffith born 1875 married Mrs. Lucile (Wood) Fetters; and Jesse Elwood Griffith born 1879 married Sylvia Dunn.

Charles Griffith died 1901 and Elizabeth (Jennings) Griffith married second George Clinton McFadden in 1908. She died March 7, 1917, and is buried at Rose Hill Cemetery beside her first husband Charles Griffith.

Solomon Jennings owned farms in Washington Township and Lewis Township until his death April 6, 1878, in Feesburg. Jane died Dec. 16, 1878, and both are buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery, Lewis Township. (See George A. Jennings this volume, eldest son of Solomon Jennings.)

Second son of Solomon Jennings was John Andrew Jennings (May 7, 1831) near Smyrna, DE. He was married in Brown County, OH, Dec. 14, 1854 to Sarah A. Carter, daughter of Levi and Rachel Carter in Lewis Township. They raised a family of 10 children: Margaret Ellen born 1855, married Thomas Woods; Martin Carter born 1857, married Lizzie Sargent; Chelton Morton born 1859, unmarried; Levi Douglas born 1861 unmarried; Lycurgus J. born 1865 married Annie Bolender; George B. born 1868 married Ora Gardner; May Elizabeth born 1869, married James Warr; Sarah Adeline born 1866, married Charles Shinkle; James Clayton born 1870, married Bessie Hillebrand; and John Andrew born 1876, married Bertha Beckelhimer.

All of this family are buried in Hamilton Ridge Cemetery, except Margaret and Thomas Woods who are buried in Swane Cemetery, Felicity, OH.

The third son of Solomon Jennings was Martin Crosby Jennings who was born (Oct. 28, 1834) near Smyrna, DE. He was married Feb. 25, 1862, in Brown County, OH, to Sarah Emeline Edick, daughter of Rev. Alvin and Margaret (Washburn) Edick. They raised their family of 14 children on a farm in Lewis Township, Route 221: William, Margaret, Linet (who married a Berrey), Clement (buried Washington, D.C.), Paul, John A., Anna (who married Charles Utter), Sarah Edith (who married Oral Scott), Grover Cleveland (who married Nellie Gillespie), Theodore and four who died young, Minnie, George, Marking and an infant son. Most of this family are buried in Aden, Higginsport and Confidence Cemeteries. Submitted by L'Verne Jennings Engel

GEORGE A. AND MELVINA (MOSS) JENNINGS-George A. Jennings was born July 28, 1829, near Smyrna, DE, eldest son of Solomon and Margaret (McClure) Jennings. He came to Brown County, OH, with his father and brothers, John Andrew and Martin Crosby, his Aunt Elizabeth (Jennings) Colegan, her daughter, Margaret Ellen, and his grandmother Ellen Kenney in 1836 soon after his mother's death. During the Civil War, he was in the Brown County Militia. He was Justice of Peace in Lewis Township for several years after 1872. He purchased a small farm in 1867 near Higginsport, in Lewis Township, on Higgins Survey 4507, where most of his children were born.

His first marriage in Brown County, Dec. 28, 1852, was to Rebecca Pollard, daughter of John Pollard. Two children were born: Benjamin Franklin, Dec. 19, 1854, who married 1873 to Nancy Davis; Mary Ellen born Jan. 9, 1857, who married 1877 Alfred Pierce (see also Ellen), and raised niece Nellie Moser).

1797 and died Dec. 17, 1838, in Brown County, OH.

William owned land in Frederick County, VA, which had once been owned by Lord Fairfax, the original patentee. This land was sold to James Taylor in 1808, after which they evidently lived in Pennsylvania for a time before moving to a large tract in Huntington Township, Brown County, OH around 1822. All their 10 children were born in Virginia except the youngest child, Hannah, who was born in Ohio. When his wife, Hannah, died in 1830 he grubbed out bushes on his property for a burial plot. In later years he gave additional land to create the Hickory Ridge Cemetery. He, his wife, and eight of his children, were buried there.

Besides farming, William and Hannah operated a hotel on Hickory Ridge. Their children were: John (1802-1881), Ann Perlina (1804-?), Mary (1810-1860), Susan (1810-1838), Abraham (1811-1833), Ellen (or Caroline) (1815-1841), Silas (1815-1829), William Jr. (1818-1899), Matilda Clara (1820-1871), and Hannah (1823-1865).

Sometime prior to the making of his will, William had given a plot of land to each of his then living children except for Mary and Hannah who were unmarried and living at home. Some of these plots were in Brown County and some on both fork in Adams County. In his will he gave a piece of land to a grandson, John Hall, and 20 acres to his wife's brother, Abner Jury, for his lifetime after which it was to pass back to Mary and Hannah. The remainder of his land, around 200 acres, was willed to Mary and Hannah along with all personal property. Later Mary and Hannah donated land adjacent to the cemetery on which the Hickory Ridge Church was built.

Two of his four sons died in early manhood. His oldest son, John, died with Winifred had three sons and no daughters. There are no known descendants with the name Jackson from this line.

William Jr. was married to Olivine Robinson (1822-1858) in 1842. Their children were: Martha Jane Freeman (1843-1921), Minerva A. (1847-1849), Lucinda (1849-1916), William M. (1852-1909), Emma Ruth Brumley (1852-1915), Margaret Lane (1854-1943), Henry Lee (1856-1938), Caroline Adamson (1858-1936) and Abner Jury (1858-1928).

Olivine died when Abner Jury was about two weeks old. The older girls kept house for the family until they married and left home. The youngest daughter, Olivine, was relieved at age 10 to take over the housekeeping duties for her father and brothers. In 1873 William Jr. married Mary Jane Carter (1835-1910) and they had three children: Elizabeth Jane Burbage (1874-1896), Aaron (1875-1876), and Edgar (1877-1883).

There are many descendants of William Sr. and Hannah Jackson in Adams County or elsewhere. Besides the name Jackson are the names Pool, Donaldson, Washburn, Beach, Bennington, Brumley, Bryan, Adamson, Burbage and others who descended from William and Hannah. Submitted by Beverly Lanning (a great-great granddaughter of Lucinda Jackson) meantime been killed and scalped by the Indians. Jacob Ferree died here in 1807, aged fifty-seven years. He was a powder-manufacturer and gunsmith, and it is said was the first to manufacture powder east of the Alleghenies. William P. Ferree, youngest son of Jacob, Sr., and Alice (Powell) Ferree, was born at the mouth of Peters creek, and was but four years old when his parents moved to the old farm at Coraopolis, where he lived and died. He married Mary Stoddard, and they had five sons and two daughters: Jacob F.; Margaret E., wife of Andrew Shafer; Robert S., George M., William K. (deceased), who was a soldier in the civil war and died from exposure; Sanford H., of New Bedford, Pa., and Mary O., married to R. B. Young. Jacob F. Ferree married, March 29, 1849, Nancy Phillips, who was born in Robinson township, a daughter of William and Susannah (Neely) Phillips. He settled on a part of the old farm, where he has since remained. He and his wife are members of the Presbyterian Church. They have following-named children: John W., a merchant in Allegheny, Pa.; Mary J., wife of James McCague; William A., farmer, at Coraopolis; Robert B., M. D., in Allegheny, Pa.; Sarah L. and Lily E., at home. Mr. Ferree has held various local offices of trust, was elected justice of the peace in 1884, and is now auditor for the borough of Coraopolis; has also been school director and supervisor.

ROBERT S. FERREE, farmer, postoffice Coraopolis, was born in the house in which he now resides, in January, 1828, the second son of William P. and Mary (Stoddard) Ferree. He married, December 4, 1862, Elizabeth Woods, who was born in Snowden township, a daughter of Joseph and Abigal (Hannah) Woods. Mr. and Mrs. Ferree are members of Forest Grove Presbyterian Church. They had a family of six children, four yet living: Jessie L., wife of J. H. McAdams, Coraopolis; Eva B., Daisy C. and Floyd R. Mr. Ferree resides on and owns a part of the old farm. He is a representative of one of the oldest families in the county.

WILLIAM ORR, farmer, postoffice Upper St. Clair, was born in Allegheny county in 1826. His father, William Orr, came to America from County Antrim, Ireland, in 1819, and settled in Westmoreland county, where he remained a short time; then moved to Upper St. Clair township, this county, where he remained many years; then moved to Lee county, Iowa, and there he died. He was always a farmer. He married Isabella Wallace, also a native of Ireland, and by her had six children, three of whom are now living. Our subject was born and reared in Upper St. Clair township, has followed farming all his life, and since 1857 has resided on his present farm, which contains 130 acres. William Orr married, in 1857, Harriet Myers, and seven children were born to them, six now living: Margarette Isabella, at home; Eliza Jane, now Mrs. R. F. Means, of Summit county, Ohio; Robert Elmer, Ella Loretta, James Albert and Ida Mary, at home. William Orr is a member of Bethel Presbyterian Church; has been school director several years; politically he is a republican.

MICHAEL MITCHELL (deceased) was born in this county, in 1795, and died in 184[illegible] 1848 He was the son of Amos and Mary (Heelman) Mitchell, who had five sons and two daughters. Amos was a soldier in the Revolution, and at the memorable defeat of Braddock received a musket-ball in his wrist. After the war he moved to Ohio, where he purchased a farm and resided until his death. Michael Mitchell married, in 1814, in Pittsburgh (then a town of log huts), Margaret, daughter of Thomas and Diana (Piatt) Thornberg. The Thornberg family were among the earliest settlers in Collier township, and Mr. Mitchell resided on the farm inherited by his wife, and which originally contained four hundred acres. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were fifteen children, seven of whom are now living: Amos, Joseph, Samuel, Rebecca, Margaret, Elizabeth and Lewis D. Mrs. Mitchell is yet living, a lady of ninety-two years. The family are members of the U. P. Church.

JOSEPH MCKOWN, retired, Woodville, was born in 1824, seventh of the nine children born to Samuel McKown. He was educated in the public schools, and reared on a farm, the pursuits of which he has followed all his life. In 1872 he married Elizabeth Chess, daughter of John and Mary (Middleswart) Chess. Mr. McKown is numbered among the leading citizens of Collier township. He was two years clerk in the county treasurer's office, and is now school director. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church; politically a democrat.

JOSEPH E. HANNA, farmer, postoffice Bridgeville, was born in Allegheny county, Pa., in 1842. In 1801 John Hanna, a native of Chester county, came to Allegheny county and took up a quarter-section of land at the mouth of Miller's run, and followed farming until his death, in 1850. He married Jane Guthery, of Lancaster county, Pa., and by her had four children. William, their only son, married Mary Ann McCreary, who bore him six children, of whom Joseph E. is the youngest. The father died in 1876, aged sixty-five years. Joseph E. was educated in the common schools, and has always been a farmer. He married, in 1879, Mary, daughter of James and Eliza Davis, of this county, and five children have been born to them: Edwin, Edith Mary, Joseph, Alice and Della. Mr. Hanna now resides on the farm which was originally the property of Mr. Stewart; it is richly underlaid with coal, and is in a high state of cultivation. Mr. Hanna is a republican, has served as school director, and is at present justice of the peace.

SAMUEL FRY (deceased) was born in Franklin township, Westmoreland county, a son of Jacob Fry, who came from Holland to Pennsylvania about ninety years ago. Jacob, who was a baker, settled on a farm in farm located west of Russellville, in Jefferson Township. In December, 1862, he married Sarah E. Gilbert, a lady of culture and superior intellectual powers, born April 2, 1834, and daughter of John and Lettie Gilbert, of Tippecanoe County, Ind. This union has been blessed with three children—John G., Mabel M. and Blanche L. Mr. Miller has been successful in business, is the owner of 126 acres of land, and a member of the F. & A. M. Lodge, at Russellville.

Didn't copy good. Amos & Mary (HEELMAN) Mitchell. Michael D. 1848. this Amos either died in Ohio or moved to Johnson Co, Ind. Maybe the Amos & Nancy in the Johnson Co. records is the son of Amos & Mary Mitchell. It is difficult! Bradock's defeat (1755) was the French & Indian War

THOMAS B. MITCHELL (deceased) was born April 5, 1810, in Pennsylvania. When seven years of age, his parents, Isaac and Margaret Mitchell, emigrated to Ohio and located near Ripley. He was reared to man's estate on a farm, and received but a limited education, but in after years, being somewhat of a reader, and having a love for good books, he acquired considerable self-knowledge, and made himself familiar with many important topics of his day. On December 23, 1832, he married Jane Wiles, daughter of Peter and Martha (Henry) Wiles. This union has been blessed with six children, of whom four are still living—Peter W. (in Illinois), Martha, Isaac (a teacher in the National Normal University at Lebanon) and Wilson T. Directly after his marriage, he located about two and a half miles north of Ripley, where he remained perhaps five years; he then moved to Ripley, where he engaged in the dry goods business for perhaps thirteen years. He then moved to Jefferson Township, and entered the mercantile business in Russellville, where he remained until his decease, on December 12, 1868. He was successful in business, owing mainly to his industry, perseverance and determination to succeed—qualities which are necessary to insure any man success. Mr. Mitchell was a man of sterling integrity and reliable character, and a member of the Christian Church. He served as Justice of the Peace in Jefferson Township for several years. His widow survives him now in her seventieth year, and at present residing at Russellville.

JOSIAH W. PICKERILL, farmer, P. O. Russellville. Samuel Pickerill, grandfather of our subject, and his wife, Mary, emigrated from Kentucky to what is now known as Byrd Township, Brown County, Ohio, at an early day and settled on about 100 acres of land, comparatively a forest, on the waters of Eagle Creek. Samuel, one of his sons, and father of our subject, was born in Kentucky, and emigrated with his parents to Brown County, Ohio, where he remained several years; then returned to Kentucky and married Miss Jane Drake, by whom he had seven children, who grew to manhood and womanhood. After his marriage he returned to Ohio, and settled in what is now known as Byrd Township, Brown County, near his father's home, where he remained several years. He then moved to what is now known as Jackson Township, where he remained about twenty-five years, and then moved to Decatur, where he remained until his death. His wife, Jane (Drake) Pickerill, having died in June, 1831, he married again in 1832, and by this marriage had six children. In the war of 1812, he served about six months, and received an honorable discharge. He was a member of the Christian Church, a man of sterling integrity and reliable character. He departed this life in the summer of 1848. Josiah W. Pickerill, our subject, was born November 18, 1817, in what is now known as Jefferson Township, Brown Co., Ohio, was reared to man's estate on a farm, and received a rudimentary education in a district school. On January 14, 1840, he was united in marriage to Miss Eleanor West, born June 15, 1819, daughter of John and Levina (deceased) West. This union has been blessed with nine children, of whom eight are still living, viz.: Levina J., Susannah, Caroline, Sarah M., Abigail, Samuel, William N. and Columbia E. After his marriage, he lived in what is now known as Jefferson Township, near Pilson's Mill, where he remained about one year; then moved to a farm on the West Fork of Eagle Creek, where he lived a short time. He then moved to Adams County, where he lived on a farm located on the old State road, leading from Aberdeen to West Union, in Sprig Township, for about five years. He then removed to Jefferson Township, Brown County, and settled on a farm located about one and one-half mile east of Russellville; this was about the year 1847, and he remained thereon until the autumn of 1879, when he removed to his farm south of Russellville, where he still resides. In his farm management, Mr. Pickerill has everything done in the most advantageous

ELIZABETH (ELIZABETH)—FORWARD—LINCOLN (REYNOLDTON).

OF the two currents of immigration to this section of country, one from Eastern Pennsylvania by way of the Cumberland valley, Fulton and Bedford counties and the Youghiogheny, the other from Virginia by way of the Potomac and Monongahela, the former contributed most largely to the early population of Allegheny county. From its geographical position, the southeastern part of the county—the narrow peninsula between the Monongahela and Youghiogheny—was first marked by the presence of any considerable body of permanent settlers, and at the organization of the county, in 1788, the "Forks of Yough" settlement was the most populous within its limits, and one of the most important in the southwestern part of the state. The population of the "Forks" in 1796 may be safely estimated at six hundred.

The following lists of early settlers are as nearly complete as it is practicable to make them. They are taken from those prepared by Allen Wall for the Elizabeth Herald, and from other sources. The correct orthography of names is exceedingly difficult to preserve, and doubtless many of these are not correctly spelled. Heads of families in 1790: Alford? Elrod?

Child# 1: Mary ROBINS-21
Mary never married; after her mother died in 1688, she took care of her young siblings. She was named in her father's 1714 will. Date of death is unknown but she was buried in the Robins Burying Place.

Child# 2: Daniel Jr ROBINS-22
Daniel had Daniel III by his 1st wife Mary Parker who died during his birth on 5 Oct 1692; by Mary, his 2nd wife, he had Jonathon (1485), John (1486), Isaac (1487) and Job 1488). They were a Quaker family.
They sold their Woodbridge property and moved to Hunterdon County, NJ. They had many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Child# 3: Lydia ROBINS-23
Her husband was the son of Thomas, Sr & Rebecca Thorpe a 1st settler of Woodbridge per FIRST SETTLERS OF PISCATAWAY & WOODBRIDGE, pg 633
Their children were William-1489, Thomas-1490, Israel-1491, Elijah-1492, Rebecca-1493 [wed John Wilkinson], Lydia-1494, dau Barchaba-1495, Mary-1496. They lived in Woodbridge. Lydia was living in 1714 when her father died but was dead at the time of William's death in 1740.

Child# 4: Joseph ROBINS-24
They built a house on his father's Woodbridge property. This was sold when they moved to Upper Freehold, Monmouth County with his father. He bought land here from his father. His wife Anna moved with her children Joseph, Jr. and Bathiah to NC and died in NC in 1750.
Their children: Anne-1497, Joseph Jr.-1498 [wed Elenor Nation & moved to Rowan County, North Carolina], Nathaniel-1499, Jacob-1500, Frances-1501, Bathiah-1502 wed John Nation Jr. and moved to NC, Rachel-1503 and Charity-1504.

Child# 5: Richard ROBINS-25
His wife Hannah Moore, d of Samuel and Mary (Insley), was a sister of Capt. John Moore who wed Richard's sister Hope. They had two children: Meribah-1505 and Richard, Jr.-1506. After Hannah died Richard moved to Salem Co., NJ and wed Catherine (Holmes) Bacon, daughter of Rev. Obadiah Holmes, Jr. and widow of Nathaniel Bacon.
They lived in Cohansey, Salem County, NJ. Their four children: Obadiah-1508, Lydia-1509, Hope-1510 and John-1511. Son Obadiah was born in 1708; his 2nd wife was Rachel (Bacon) Shepard. FAMILY GENEALOGIST SARA ROBBINS HOFFMAN IS A DESCENDANT OF RICHARD ROBINS, JR. AND WAS HELPFUL IN THE PREPARATION OF THIS SECTION.

Child# 7: Nathaniel ROBINS-27
Both Nathaniel and Sarah died from a "plague", likely influenza, before his father died in 1714. Their two daughters, Sarah and Marabee, then lived with their grandfather and Aunt Mary Robins. They were later made wards of Nathaniel's brother Daniel Robins, Jr.

in the area. However, Siddels are found including Bucks Co., PA. Search continues along this line. Benjamin's 1760 will names his wife Judith.

Child# 2: Deliverance ROBINS-43
Her known children by John Taylor were Aaron-1529, Ezra-1530 and John-1531. John Taylor, Sr. was from a very early Quaker family in New Jersey.

Child# 4: Nathaniel ROBINS-45
Their children were: Nathaniel Jr.-1532, Obadiah-1533, Job-1534, Theodosia-1535, Ann-1536, Susannah-1537, Ruth-1538, Abel-1539, Vanroom-1540. They had many grandchildren. They purchased his father's Nottingham plantation in 1761; in 1785 they conveyed much of the estate to son Vanroom. Nathaniel's loyalist brother Richard executed a Power Of Attorney deed before he exiled to Canada; Nathaniel and his son Vanroom witnessed this deed.

Child# 5: Benjamin ROBINS-46
Their children include: Isaih-1541, Moses-1542, Aaron-1543, Benjamin III-1544. Jesse-1545, Joseph-1546. Benjamin, Jr. died shortly after his dad in 1760. Isaih was the administer of his loyalist Uncle Richard Robin's estate and was prominent in township and Quaker affairs. Isaih married Sarah Large in 1763 and died in 1823 in NJ.

Child# 6: John ROBINS blacksmith-47
He operated a blacksmith shop by the pond in Allentown, NJ. His father, who owned the shop and residence, willed it to John in 1760.

Child# 7: Richard ROBINS-48
A family researcher, father of Marion Whittenburg, left a note saying that Richard's wife was a French Huguenot with surname of PILLON. If true, she is likely from Jacques Poillion/Polyon who settled on Staten Island c1670 and owned Woodbridge property. A John Polyon was on John Imlay's 1751-57 Bordentown store ledger with Richard Robins--may be her dad. Her first name is likely Elizabeth or the Spanish version Isabella. Their three children, John Benjamin and Isabella, all named an early daughter Elizabeth.

Hi Midge,

I got to Norwalk to the Co. Recorder's & easily found Joseph Lucas & Malinda Stratton. Both records are in the death records for the City of Los Angeles, which are kept separately from the county records.

JOSEPH LUCAS
Local Registration #1146, Vol. 131, cert. filed 2/21/1917 male - white - married - retired
d. 2/19/1917 @ 9:30pm - @ 1332 W. 29th St, Los Angeles, CA
b. 5/25/1843, Muscatime?, IA.... age: 73y, 8m, 24d
f. Samuel Lucas, OH; m. Nancy Hitchcock, "do not know" wife: Sarah J Lucas
length of residence in place of death: 13 yrs time in CA: 13 yrs
Inf: Sarah J. Lucas, 1332 W. 29th St, LA cause of death: rupture of heart.... post
cert. dated 2/21/1917
Calvin Hartwell, Coroner
T.J. Williams, Dep. Coroner.
undertaker: Dexter Samson Co, 1132 S. Flower
burial: Rosedale Cem., 2/21/1917

* I am assuming that the "post" written beneath the "rupture of heart"... & the dating & signing by the coroner means that ere was a post mortem.

MALINDA STRATTON
Local Reg. #2257, Vol. 110, filed 5/7/1915
female - Caucasian - widow - no occupation
d. 5/5/1915 @ 1149 E. 28th St, Los Angeles, CA
b. 5/7/1833, OH... age: 81y, 11m, 28d
f. James Heaton, OH (The surname was a little difficult to read. The "H" was flourishing with loops... but the "aton" was quite legible. I'm just not sure if the loop between was intended to be an "E" or part of the flourishes on the "H". In my opinion... it was an E.
m. Elizabeth...., OH
length of residence in place of death: 1 week time in CA: 1y, 3m.
Inf: J.D. Faris, 950 S. Flower St, Los Angeles cause of death: Carcinoma of stomach, duration 1y, 6m; contributory: starvation, 20 mos.
Cert. dated: 5/6/1915
Dr. attended from 3/31/1915 - 5/5/1915. Last seen alive by Dr. on 5/4/1915 @ 4pm
Dr: Nellie Hammond Thurston, MD, 924 Black Bldg, LA
undertaker: Faris Carmichael
burial: Rosedale Cem, 5/7/1915

This is interesting... a female MD.

I hope this helps. It's possible that there could be an obit in one of the LA papers. I can check the LA Times at the library in ong Beach, where the parking fee is only $6 or I might have a run to the LAPL coming. If so, their $27 fee could be split. It's much better when I go to the LAPL for more than one client, that way waiting time for the films & parking fees can be split.

Let me know, if you want me to proceed. I'll probably try to tackle downtown during the 4th of July week, when I'm off work.

Today I received some of the information that I had requested from Missouri and now I find I know little more than I did before. As an retired English teacher, I do enjoy the prose style.

>From the Republican Record Oct. 26, 1905

Mrs. Mary Lauterback died last Sunday night. She had slowly sunk, like a burned out candle, till the end came. She was 87 years of age. There were children, grand children and great grand children at her funeral. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. H.E. Marshall in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon. Interment was at Rock Branch.

A baby girl was born to Al Lauterback and wife, but the little newcomer did not live. It was feared for a time that the mother would not survive, but she is now in a fair way to recovery.

>From the Hale Leader (no date, but I have other articles from Hale, MO so I know the paper.)

Born, to Al Lauterback and wife, a daughter. This occurred the latter part of last week. The little one that would have been so loved and welcomed never saw the light, but was dead when ushered into the world. The young mother came within a hair's breath of following her little one. It was a fight for life and a desparate one. For hours it seems as though it would be a losing one, but youth, skill, love and care snatch this young life out of the hands of the grim reaper and saved it form his sickle keen. She is now considered practically out of danger.

As a climax to this record of sadness comes the sickness and death of Mrs. Mary Lauterback. She was the great grandmother of the babe of which I have just written. She was very old, being in 88th year. She had been quite feeble for several months. For several weeks she had been failing. The end came about one a. m. on the 23rd. Rev. H.E. Marshall conducted the funeral service at the Presbyterian Church. The remains were then taken to Rock Branch, where they will rest till the great awakening comes. Nearly all the descendants of this aged grandmother were present at the funeral service. Several great grandchildren were present.

Mrs. Ida Bailey from near Carrollton attended during the last hours of Grandmother Lauterback.

Sam Lauterback and Charlie Haven, of Chillicother, were present at the death and burial of Mrs. Lauderback.

Then, there was a handwritten note:

Mary Lauterback

uable and productive land, which he has tiled and placed under a high state of cultivation. Upon this land he has built four good residences, barns and other outbuildings, and was actitvely engaged in agricultural pursuits until 1900, when he rented his land and is now living retired, enjoying a well earned rest upon his farm, which is pleasantly located within two miles of Pontiac. He built a residence and lived in the city for two years, but in 1898 he returned to the farm. He now owns two residences in the city.

Before leaving his native land, Mr. Heisner was married, in February, 1864, to Miss Catherine Trender, also a native of Prussia, and to them have been born five sons, namely: Philip, a resident of Pontiac; Frederick, William and Frank, who are en- Paul, Jr., who travels. gaged in farming on the home place, and Since casting his first presidential vote for General U. S. Grant, Mr. Heisner has been unswerving in his allegiance to the Republican party, and in this regard his sons all follow in his footsteps. He has never cared for political office, preferring to devote his undivided attention to his business interests, but for six years most acceptably served as school director. Fraternally he is an honored member of T. Lyle Dickey Post, G. A. R., at Pontiac. As a young man he came to America, and with no capital started out in a strange land to overcome the difficulties and obstacles in the path to prosperity. His youthful dreams have been realized and in their busy fulfillment he sees the fitting reward of earnest toil. He is not only one of the most successful men of his community, but is also highly respected and esteemed by all who know him on account of his sterling worth.

LIBERTY LOUDERBACK.

More than sixty-three years ago this gentleman came to Livingston county, and during this long period, which covers nearly the whole span of the county's development from a primitive state to its present flourishing condition, he has been identified with its interests. For over half a century he carried on farming in Amity township, but is now living retired in the village of Cornell.

Mr. Louderback was born in Brown county, Ohio, July 4, 1824, and was given the name of Liberty by his grandfather, Uriah Springer. Michael Louderback, the paternal grandfather, was a native of Germany, who came to this country with two brothers at the close of the Revolutionary war. He settled in Ohio, while one brother located in Virginia, the other in Pennsylvania. Our subject's father, Thomas Louderback, was also born and reared in Brown county, Ohio, and there married Sarah Springer, a daughter of Uriah Springer, who at an early day moved from Virginia to Ohio. There Mr. Louderback followed farming until 1831, when he came to Illinois and settled in Vermilion county, near the present city of Danville, then a crossroads village. He bought land and resided there a few years, but in 1837 moved to Amity township, Livingston county, where he entered a tract from the government and opened up a farm, on which he spent the remainder of his life, dying there March 6, 1854. His wife had passed away October 25, 1842. In their family were five sons and three daughters who reached mature years, and four sons and one daughter are still living.

Liberty Louderback, who is the oldest of this family, grew to manhood in Amity township, only attending school a few months during the winter, but early becoming familiar with every department of farm work. On attaining his majority he began life for himself by working as a farm hand or at any occupation which he could find. He took up a claim of about one hundred and twenty acres of land, broke fourteen acres, and commenced farming. On the 26th of April, 1849, in Livingston county, he married Miss Mary Jane Corbin, who was born in Virginia, in 1827, but was reared in this county as her father, David Corbin, with his family, located here in 1831.

Mr. and Mrs. Louderback began their domestic life on his farm in a primitive log cabin with furniture of his own manufacture. His first land he purchased from the Illinois Central Railroad Company, and to the original tract he added until he had two hundred and twenty-two acres of valuable land on section 20, Amity township, which he placed under a high state of cultivation and improved with good buildings. He continued to actively engage in farming until 1877, when he moved to Cornell and purchased the property where he has since made his home. He was interested in the real estate and insurance business for a time, but is now living a retired life.

Mr. Louderback has been called upon to mourn the loss of his estimable wife, who died May 11, 1900, and was laid to rest in Cornell cemetery. Six children were born to them, namely: John H., who is married and now operates the old homestead farm; George W., who owns and operates a farm adjoining the homestead; Chester W., who is married and lives in St. Louis; Julia, widow of Thomas J. Gregory, and a resident of Cornell; Hersey J., wife of Harry L. Manley, of Streator, Illinois; Hattie C., wife of W. H. Graser, of Luverne, Rock county, Minnesota.

In 1854 Mr. Louderback was elected justice of the peace, and most creditably and acceptably filled that office for nearly thirty-five years. He is familiarly known as Squire Louderback. He also served as supervisor five years, township treasurer, collector and school trustee, and always performed his duties in a faithful and satisfactory manner. He cast his first presidential vote for James K. Polk, in 1844, and became identified with the Republican party on its organization, voting for Fremont in 1856, but since 1878 he has been a Prohibitionist, having always been an earnest advocate of temperance. He is an active member of the Methodist Episcopal church, of Cornell, and his upright course in life commends him to the respect and confidence of all who know him. His labors as one of the founders of the county justly entitle him to a prominent place in its annals.

CHRISTIAN WELTE.

Christian Welte, a prosperous and progressive farmer residing on section 31, Nebraska township, Livingston county, Illinois, was born in Wurtemburg, Germany, December 20, 1842, and is a son of Vincent and Elfans (Strubb) Welte. When he was five years of age the mother died leaving a family of six children, namely: Marcellus, now a resident of El Paso, Illinois; Bertha, wife of John Rover, of Iowa; Ansilem, deceased; Joseph, who was a member of Company F, Fifty-sixth New York Volunteer Infantry, and during the Civil war was killed at the battle of the Wilderness; Ma-by her family and friends is enjoying all of the comforts and many of the luxuries of life.

The parents of Mrs. Stratton were natives of Pennsylvania, her father the son of Jeremiah and Sarah Miller, who spent their entire lives in the Keystone State. The former died in 1860, at Ancona, Ill., and his wife two years later, in Pennsylvania. Vernera E. was born in Pennsylvania, Aug. 25, 1835, and came with herparents to this State in 1844. The paternal family included the following-named children: Samantha E., Vernera E., Abigail D., Annie V.. John E., Annie Viola, Merritt W., and an infant who died unnamed.

Mrs. Stratton completed her education in her native State, and continued under the parental roof until her marriage with M. L. Stratton, which was celebrated at the home of the bride, June 24, 1859. The nine children born of this union are recorded as follows: Susan was born July 20, 1860, and is now living in Iowa; Martha W. was born Feb. 22, 1861, and died two weeks and three days later; Dighton was born Feb. 21, 1863, and is farming in Iowa; Ralph was born May 6, 1865, and remains at home with his mother; Celia I. was born Feb. 25, 1868, and being unusually fond of her books, has acquired a good education, completing her studies in the High School at Perry, Iowa; Hugh was born March 6, 1870; Flora M., June 28, 1873; Edwin S., June 17, 1875, and Clyde F., July 11, 1878.

LIBERTY LOUDERBACK, general insurance, real estate and collecting agent at Cornell, came to this county during the pioneer days, locating in Amity Township in 1837. He may now proudly boast of a fifty years' residence, during which time he has built up an enviable reputation as an honest man and a good citizen. He possesses excellent business capacity, and has been closely identified with the interests of his adopted State since taking up his abode within its limits.

Mr. Louderback was born in Brown County, Ohio, July 4, 1824, and is the son of Thomas and Sarah (Springer) Louderback, natives of the same place, where the former was born in 1803, and was the son of Michael Louderback, a native of Germany, born in 1770. He crossed the Atlantic during his youth, just after the Revolutionary War, and located in Brown County, Ohio, where he engaged in farming and spent the balance of his days. He built up a good homestead, and closed his eyes upon the scenes of earth in 1832. He chose for his wife one of the maidens of Brown County, and they became the parents of eight children, namely: Peter, Michael, Andrew, Thomas, Henry, Isaac, Susanna and Nancy; all have now passed away.

In November, 1831, Thomas Louderback left the Buckeye State, and coming to Illinois located in Vermilion County, where he engaged in farming six years. In 1837 he came to Livingston County, and in April of that year located in Amity Township on section 21. He possessed a large amount of sturdy persistence, and with reference to anything he had once undertaken, there was in his vocabulary no such word as fail. The face of the country fifty years ago presented a vastly different appearance from that of the present, suggesting at once the necessity of men of perseverance and strength of character in order to perfectly accomplish the developement of its natural resources. Thomas Louderback was in nowise lacking in the essential qualities of the pioneer, and each year saw something added to his prosperity. In due time, besides various conveniences around the homestead and the necessary buildings pertaining thereto, he had accumulated 250 acres of land and a choice assortment of live stock. After having been an honored resident of Amity Township for a period of seventeen years, during which time he had made many friends and secured the respect of the entire community, he departed this life on the 6th of March, 1854. The faithful wife and mother, who had accompanied him to the West and bravely shared his trials and labors, preceded her husband to the silent land Oct. 25, 1842.

The eleven children born to Thomas and Sarah Louderback were named as follows: Susanna, Liberty, Mary, Mills, Levi (see sketch), William, Columbus, Thirza, Mahala, Thomas and George. Susanna, Columbus and George died in infancy; most of those now living are residents of Livingston County. The mother of this family was born in Brown County, Ohio, June 12, 1805, and was the daughter of Uriah and Nancy (Long) Springer, natives of Virginia. Nancy Springer was born July 23, 1779, in Brown County, Ohio, and departed this life July 24, 1838. Her husband, Uriah, was born in the State of Virginia, March 31, 1780, and surviving his wife nine years, died Oct. 29, 1847. Our subject has in his possession a fine family record dating back through several generations. By this it appears that his maternal ancestors were natives of Sweden and residents in or near the city of Stockholm. Grandfather Springer, after his marriage in the Old Dominion, removed with his family to Brown County, Ohio, and subsequently, in 1837, to Illinois with his children, locating in Amity Township, where he and his excellent wife spent their last years. They were the parents of thirteen children. Mary, the eldest daughter, died when forty-three years of age, in Amity Township; Hannah died a year younger; Nathan lived to be seventy-one years of age; Sarah, the mother of our subject, was the fourth child; William died at thirty-three years of age; Joseph at forty-seven; Zadock at twenty-two; Levi at twenty-seven; Drusilla makes her home at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, and is seventy-three years of age; Nancy died at thirty-nine years of age; Mahala at twenty-eight; Uriah lived to be only twenty years old, and Thirza passed away at the age of fourteen.

The subject of this biography spent his childhood and youth under the parental roof, making himself useful in various ways upon the farm. As may be supposed, considering the section of country in which his early years were passed, his schooling was exceedingly limited, embracing only about eight months to the time of reaching his majority. He possessed good natural ability, however, while he was a keen observer of what was going on around him, and by the perusal of instructive books, has attained a good knowledge of business methods, besides posting himself upon subjects of general interest. He was a lad of thirteen years upon coming to this county, and developed into manhood amid its pioneer scenes, securing many friends and becoming admirably equipped for the struggle of life.

The most important event in the life of our subject was his marriage, which took place April 25, 1849, shortly before he had reached his twenty-fifth birthday. The young lady chosen to share his future life was Miss Mary Jane Corbin, who was born Oct. 9, 1827, in the Old Dominion, and is the daughter of David and Catherine Corbin, natives of Virginia. They continued in the Old Dominion until about 1831, and then took up their residence in Livingston County. The parental household included five children—Jacob, Obedience, Ellen, Harriet and Mary Jane; of these but one is now living.

Mr. and Mrs. Louderback after their marriage located in Amity Township, and in due time their household included six children. The eldest son, John H., was born March 25, 1850, and on the 11th of May, 1873, was married to Miss Mary King, of Amity Township, where they are still living on a farm, and have four children; George W. was born Oct. 9, 1851, and married Miss Ella Gates, of Amity Township; he is also engaged in farming in that township, and is the father of three children. Chester W., a painter by trade, was born April 9, 1854, and married Miss Amanda Young, May 12, 1878; they have four children, and reside in Pawnee City, Neb. Julia was born Oct. 18, 1856, and is the wife of Thomas J. Gregory, of Cornell, and the mother of four children, one of whom is deceased; Hersie Jane was born Sept. 28, 1863, and was married, Dec. 27, 1882, to Harry L. Mallory; they have two children, and are residents of Streator. Harriet C. was born April 26, 1868, and is the only child at home.

Mr. Louderback's business transactions extend over a large tract of territory, and he has been made the conservator of important interests. He is independent in politics and has for years been warmly interested in the success of the temperance movement, being essentially a Prohibitionist. He was elected Justice of the Peace in November, 1855, which office he has since held, and has served as Township School Treasurer eight years, and represented Amity Township in the County Board of Supervisors three years. He has been a resident of Cornell for the last ten years, and is recognized as one of its most valued citizens. Our subject, with his excellent wife, many years ago connected himself with the Protestant Methodist Church, of which he has now been an honored member thirty-six years, much of this time serving as Trustee, which office he holds at present. He has now passed his threescore years, and has made for himself a record of which his children will never be ashamed.

JOHN ZEIGLER, a retired farmer of Sunbury Township, was born near Carlisle, Cumberland Co., Pa., April 3, 1821, and was the eldest in a family of five children, the offspring of Henry and Sophia (Frye) Zeigler, also natives of the Keystone State. His paternal grandparents were Henry and Barbara Zeigler, natives respectively of America and Germany. Henry Zeigler was Captain of a company in the Revolutionary War, serving all through the conflict until its close.

Henry Zeigler followed the occupation of a farmer in Pennsylvania until 1856, then removed to Fountain County, Ind., and from there, in 1877, to this State. His wife had died in Pennsylvania. He spent his declining years with his two sons, alternately, and died in 1881. John, of our sketch, was educated in the common schools, and at the age of twenty engaged in teaching. On the 6th of October, 1842, he was married to Miss Sarah Dunkelbarger, who was born in Perry County, Pa., Aug. 4, 1825. Her parents were Jonathan and Maria Dunkelbarger, natives of Pennsylvania, where they spent their entire lives.

Our subject after his marriage farmed for a time in his native State, and upon his removal to Indiana, purchased a farm in Fountain County, upon which he operated three years. In the spring of 1852 he came to Illinois, making the journey overland in the same manner in which he had removed from Pennsylvania, and driving his stock before. In this manner he brought sheep and hogs, but the price for these being very low he lost money on them.

Mr. Zeigler upon coming to this county entered 160 acres of land on section 25, in Newtown Township, with forty acres of timber. Here he built a house, and with the exception of two families had no neighbors for many miles around. Deer, wolves and wild turkeys were plentiful, and there was only one school-house between him and Pontiac. Mr. Zeigler assisted in laying off roads and school districts, locating the boundaries of the township, and was otherwise prominent in its development and progress. During his residence there of twenty-nine years he built up a fine farm, but finally took up his residence on his farm in Sunbury Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler became the parents of seven children, of whom but two are living—Benjamin and George. The former is farming in Newtown Township, and the latter is living at the homestead. Jesse R. Brown, a grandson, also makes his home with our subject. Mr. Zeigler contemplates making his future home in New Michigan, where he has already purchased property. He has been active in politics the greater part of his life and votes the Republican ticket. Religiously he belongs to the United Brethren Church, in which he has officiated as Class-Leader for twenty years, and also as Trustee.

ALVIN GEORGE CLARK was born in LaSalle County, Ill., Oct. 4, 1842, and was the oldest child of Charles and Olive (Slater) Clark, who were natives of Ohio and New Hampshire respectively. His parents came to LaSalle County probably in 1838, and remained there until the close of the war, when they removed to Missouri, and settled in Johnson County. The father remained in that place until his death. He enlisted in the 104th Illinois Infantry on its formation, and served until the close of hostilities, and participated in many battles, including those of Shiloh, Lookout Mountain, Corinth and Island No. 10. His death was due to disease incurred while in the service.

The subject of this sketch was reared on a farm and educated in the common schools. At the age of twenty-two he left home and began life for himself, having been married Nov. 25, 1862, to Miss Susan Withrow, who was born in Toronto, Canada, Feb. 22, 1841. She is the daughter of James and Mary (Harley) Withrow, the former of whom was a school teacher. Alvin and his young wife comby the birth of four children. Lindley W., the eldest, was born Nov. 29, 1880; Lillian A., Aug. 15, 1881; LaRado J., born July 25, 1883, and died July 12, 1885; and Ethel C., born Dec. 17, 1885. Mrs. Meyer has been a member of the Baptist Church since a young girl twelve years of age, and is now connected with the society at Ocoya, where Mr. M. regularly attends with his wife, although not a member. In politics Mr. Myer affiliates with the Republican party.

LEVI LOUDERBACK, largely engaged in farming and stock-raising on a finely cultivated tract of land in Aimty Township, is the son of an early pioneer of Vermilion County, this State, where his birth took place Dec. 10, 1832. A sketch of his parents, Thomas and Sarah (Springer) Louderback, will be found in the biography of Liberty Louderback, on another page of this Album.

Our subject commenced "paddling his own canoe" soon after reaching his majority, and by hard work and good management succeeded in securing the warranty deed to 175 acres of land, the greater part of which is now under a good state of cultivation. The fields are enclosed with neat and substantial fences, and the farm buildings will bear fair comparison with those of the homesteads adjacent. The location is unusually desirable, being convenient to church and school, and one of the most attractive features of the place is the only deer park in the county, which contains a number of fine animals.

Mr. Louderback very wisely refrained from assuming the responsibility of a family until he had laid the foundations for a home and a competency. This accomplished, he was married in Livingston County, on the 1st of March, 1863, to Miss Sarah Jane Stretch. Mrs. Louderback was born on the 19th of February, 1840, in Tippecanoe County, Ind., and is the daughter of William and Mary (Blue) Stretch, natives of Indiana. The mother was born July 5, 1811, and departed this life at her home in Tippecanoe County, Ind., Dec. 9, 1847. William Stretch was born Aug. 20, 1809, and died in the same place Feb. 6, 1856. They were married in the above county, April 2, 1835, and were blessed with a family of seven children, two of whom died unnamed. The others were Thomas Harrison, now deceased; Sarah Jane; Harriet Elizabeth, the wife of John Randolph, of Lafayette, Ind.; William Moore, who became a Union soldier and was killed at the battle of Shiloh, and Mary Catherine, who died in infancy.

William Stretch was subsequently married to Mrs. Nancy Hollcraft, June 1, 1850, in Clinton County, Ind., and of this union there were born two children: Celestia A., wife of Harry Canfield, a railroad conductor and now a resident of Louisville, Ky., and Ed, who died in Washington City, Feb. 14, 1874, when nineteen years of age. He was attending school and would have graduated in another month. Their mother is now deceased.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Louderback located in a modest dwelling on the farm where they now reside, and the household circle was completed by the advent of the following children, the record of whom is thus given: Ulysses William was born March 1, 1864, and is now a promising young man twenty-four years of age, and completing a literary course of study in the college at Dixon; he is remarkably fond of reading and study, and will doubtless choose one of the professions; at present, the winter of 1887-88, he is teaching school. Hattie Celestia, born Oct. 26, 1865, also took kindly to her books, and is now a teacher in the public schools of Livingston County. The second daughter, Ella, was born July 11, 1867, and died on the 15th of August of the following year. John Schuyler was born Feb. 10, 1869; Levi Guy, Feb. 3, 1875; Harry Thomas, May 29, 1880; and Mary Gertrude, March 19, 1885; these four are at home with their parents.

In 1863, when Mr. Louderback took possession of his present property, there was much to be done in order to render it comfortable and desirable as a homestead, but to this task he set himself with a will and may be justified in looking upon the results of his labor with a great deal of satisfaction. He has been upright in all his dealings, and numbers his friends by the score in the community which has known him long and well, and learned to value him for his manly worth and integrity.

He has done a father's full duty by his children, who form a family group of which the parents need by no means be ashamed. Mr. and Mrs. Louderback are both members of the Methodist Protestant Church and in good standing of the same.

NELSON N. MICKELSON, the leading grocer of Dwight, is of Danish ancestry, and was born in Denmark, July 29, 1850. He comes of long-lived ancestry, his paternal grandparents living to be over ninety years of age. His father, Mikkel K. Mickelson, was a native of the same country, and was a cooper by trade, conducting an extensive business. His mother was, in her girlhood, Miss Cecelia M. Frederickson, and they became the parents of six children, namely: Nelson N., Jens P., Botellie, Michal S., Andreas and Andre.

The father of our subject, soon after his marriage, started out on a sealing expedition as cooper of the vessel, visiting Greenland and the northern seas, being thus occupied ten years. He then returned to terra firma, and spent his last years in his native Denmark. He was a hard-working, industrious man, temperate and upright, and is remembered as a good husband and father in the broadest sense of the term. His first wife died when sixty years of age, and two years later he married again, and died Jan. 9, 1870.

The subject of our sketch received his education in a common school, and learned coopering from his father in early life. Upon reaching his majority he resolved to seek his fortune in the New World, and accordingly embarked on a sailing-vessel from Hamburg, and after a fair voyage, arrived in New York City. He at once set his face westward, and coming directly to this county, located in Dwight, where he has since resided. His ambition to become a citizen of the United States had been stimulated by his teacher in the old country, by whom he was advised to emigrate, even if he had to borrow the money for the purpose, which he did, securing $100 from several farmers in the locality where he had been reared, who knew him as an honest young man who would certainly repay them. The year after his arrival here he liquidated his debt, and still preserves the leaf in his memorandum book containing the names of the kind friends who had so materially assisted him.

Upon coming to this country Mr. Mickelson was employed as a farm laborer one year, and then engaged as an employe of William H. Conrad, with whom he remained two years, one year in general work and one at his trade. The four years following he was engaged as clerk with McWilliams & Smith, dealers in dry-goods and groceries, taking care to live within his income and save what he could of his earnings. In 1878 he established himself in the grocery trade in a small frame building on East street, and there began the career which has proved so successful.

In due time Mr. Mickelson was obliged to increase his facilities, and moved to the district which was afterward visited by a disastrous fire which destroyed the business portion of the town of Dwight. In common with others of his townsmen, he met with great loss. but spent no time in brooding over his misfortune. A week later found him established on the West Side with the remnants of his little fortune around him and ready for business. Subsequently he rented a store in the Hetzel Building, where he is now located, enjoying a good and growing trade, while he has the esteem and confidence of his fellow-citizens. He is essentially a self-made man, and has been chiefly remarkable for his strict attention to his own concerns.

Mr. Mickelson was married, in the spring of 1884, to one of his own countrywomen, Miss Margaret Pfeifer, and they have become the parents of one child, a son, Mitchell S. Mr. M., after becoming a naturalized citizen, cast his lot with the Republican party, and with his excellent lady, is a member in good standing of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Dear Jan,

Hope you are feeling better now that the sun is staying out more---it is at our end anyway.

I am enclosing two Email from Donna and one I had sent her with Indexes on the name Bellar/Ballar.

The Samuel C. Louderback you found in Iowa, I feel is the same Samuel showing on the 1850 census of Brown Co. OH, age 1 year. Head stone, in cemetery, places date of birth 1852, and headstone of his wife is Hattie has her birth in 1867, so he was in Iowa in 1900. Probably by 1920 census he had moved to Kansas City, MO. Donna stated he was a Mason, and as I had two Jennings that were Masons they sure did move around a lot.

I now wonder if Jackson hadn't taken up the trade of masonry or was a carpenter and traveled to where jobs were. Either the family was on the move at census time or Jackson was also known as Andrew. Possibly named after Andrew Jackson?

In Illinois, Mary had brothers in Tazwell Co. IL and in 1860 there is a Andrew Louderback listed in Stark Co. IL. There is also a Andrew listed in Parke Co. Indiana in 1860. Could be same person depending when census was taken in each state. Sending an Email off to Donna today as she is going to the FHL in Mesa, AZ Thursday and I know they have all the U.S. Census films there, so maybe she can check. If we can find them in 1860 and 1870 surely we should be able to pin down where Jackson died.

Donna seems to jump around and I am not sure what she has in documentation. Will check and see if she will list what she has. If she doesn't have obit on Samuel's death in Kansas City, I will have someone in the Jackson Co. MO Gen. Soc. check. I still am a member of it and I know they have all the newspaper films at library where they meet.

We are GAINING on ole Jackson or whatever name he went by, but would like to know more on the children and if any of their descendants can be found. Will keep you posted. Will call, if a big find comes in.

Feel settled now and have genealogy a little better organized too. Finally made it to FHL in Chehalis and they have quite a bit on Washington, but not much in books for mid-west or the eastern area like Virginia or Maryland. Not even on fiche which surprised me. Received a notice on a newsletter I subscribe to on the web and understand the new IGI will be shipping to all branches starting 1 Feb. 43 million new names, so maybe some of my lost ones will be on it. Have ordered film in but as usual one has to wait, and I hope what I want is on reel that I ordered.

Still do not want to make any long range plans as my mother's health is up then down, and I really don't expect her to live much longer. We all are surprised that she is still hanging in there. She will be 91 in April and the two strokes have paralyzed her left side and her speech is very poor. Sort of plan each day and make sure it is nothing I can't cancel. Tell the gang Hi and maybe I can make the meeting in March.

Clarissa 's E. could be named after both her grandmothers- Clarissa and Elizabeth
Symantha J. could be Jane and the one who married Bellar

Who is the parents of these three boys; all carry surname Louderback & lived Carroll Co. MO?

Henry E-- b.1875	Listed as bro of Albert on 1920 census
Harry C ---b. 1881	Listed as nephew of Mary, who was listed H ofHousehold 1900
Albert------b. 1883.	also listed as grandson of Mary A Lauterback in newspaper article on death of Albert's dau* and in obit of Mary' it states she was the great grandmother of the babe* just written about. Both articles were in the newspaper 'Hale Leader', Oct 1905.

State Centennial History of Highland County, OHIO, V.2; 1902
P. 376

Alvin M. Louderback, justice of the peace in Clay township, and widely known as a prosperous farmer and stockraiser, is the grandson of Peter Louderback, a native of Pennsylvania, who was brought to Ohio by his parents, who settled as pioneers in the vicinity of the town of Sardinia. Justice Louderback, is therefore, in the fourth generation of the family in Ohio. Peter Louderback, when he grew to manhood, married Betsey Carbory, a daughter of another pioneer family of Brown County, and made his home in Brown county, farming through the warmer months and devoting the winters to his trade as a shoemaker. Fifteen children were born to him and his wife: Jackson, Causby, Mary, Millie, Marion, James, Hamer, Mason, Emariah, Arminda and Clarinda (twins), and Peter. Several of these are yet living in Ohio, including Hamer, the father of A.M. Louderback. [Only 12 of 15 given]

Hamer Louderback was born in 1835, at the home near Sardinia, and when a youth found employment for several years on the river boats between Higginsport and Cincinnati. Later he married Mary Welsh, a native of Clermont county, and they made their home first at the town of Rural, in that county. Subsequently their home was on Straight creek and various other places in Brown county, until they moved to White Oak township, Highland county, where they resided for seventeen years. There the wife and mother died, and afterward Hamer Louderback returned to Brown county, and wedded Rachel Martin. He is now living at Georgetown, where he has been honored for four years with the office of city marshal. By his first marriage twelve children were born: A.M. subject of this sketch; Anna, whose home is in Georgetown; John, in Kansas; Arthur, in Montana; Ollie, in Washington; Martha, in Brown county; Emmariah, in Illinois; Clara, in Brown county; George, in Greene County; Flora and Florence (twins), in Brown county, and Pearl, in the same county.

[Article goes on about Alvin and his children] Reason for sending is the name of Peter Louderback's wife Betsey. It most likely is spelt wrong, Brown Co. History has name spelt Carbery. History of James L. Carbery, states his father was Josiah Carbery and his mother was Mary, daughter of HUDSON DENNIS, and a native of Kentucky. She died about 1865. I'm sure you have this, but I find it interesting, all the connections.

I have enclosed what I had in my file on Dennis line that I answered after reading the Email queries.

Here is what Donna does. Oh, yes I received a quick Email Sat. night--Donna and husband were off to Rome and will return May 11th. She does get around. Back to what she does--
In WA, she taught in Connell, Yakima and moved to Bellevue as a curriculum person. Then, she principalled in Sumner for 4 long, long, long years. Her husband retired from the state office in 1979. She continued working, but moved to NW Washington where she officially retired in 1989 from an Educational Service District in Mt. Vernon, where she was an asst. supt. Stayed retired for one year. Her old supt. retired, had moved to Santa Rosa, CA and took a job in a county office. He called and said, "I have an emergency. Come work for me for a while---may be 3 days, 3 weeks, 3 months." Three + years later, she quit the Sonoma County Office and just started part time consulting for a variety of agencies. Right now she is down to just the one consulting contract for the Center for Educational Renewal and the Institute of Educational Inquiry, which are connected with the UW. She has been working 25-40 days a year. I work with teacher training institutions and their partnerships with the public schools. She has a long term relationship with 5 colleges in SC, Miami of OH, and 2 in St. Louis and a short term relationship with NE. She added that she is winding down, sometimes the work interferes with our travel and I have to be vigilant about money because last year I started collecting SS.

Believe I will check 1870 census of Carroll Co. MO. Will run the whole census. Donna doesn't state she checked it, only gave info on Putnam County, York twp. (bad copy) she gave a Milton Louderback 55 b. KY.

Another strange piece was in 1880 Livingston, Chillicothe Twp. MO
Albert Louderback age 19 b. MO was enummerated with his brother-in-law, Charles PORTER. Can't be same Albert as this guy would have been born in 1861. From the age of one in IA that Albert wasn't born until 1883.

I did check the deed index and abstracts of Carroll Co. for 1870-1876. No Louderback bought land. Need to order later years to see if daughter Mary bought land.
Started off just sending you the marriage records that were found. Will try to make meeting in May.

Dear Richard,

I've recently been like the best hound dog in the county, off on the fresh scent of the rabbit, and can't wait to cover the next 200 yards, Ha! Unlike that hound, however, I must force myself to pull up and get a report off, before the cost overwhelms you.

As suggested in my earlier report, I have examined the census records of Scioto County and, with the help of the marriage records and pre-1850 probate listings, put together some possible family units. I was trying to determine how these Louderbacks, all of whom bear the same christian names as those in Brown County, might relate to your Michael, Sr. of Brown and those of Washington County, Pennsylvania.

Of those examined, we have Michael b ca 1781 Pa.; Elizabeth b. ca 1799 Pa., and Samuel W. b ca. 1810 Pa. Conrad, after serving in the war of 1812, was not found, nor was Peter, also War of 1812, who married in Scioto County in 1816. A Peter died in 1847 in Scioto County, but he may be the younger Peter, who married in 1843-not found in 1850.

Scioto was formed in 1803, but I do not find the LOUDERBACK name on the 1810 tax list - which ties in nicely with the birth of Samuel in Pa. ca 1810 and William in Ohio in 1815; but, does not explain the marriage of Polly, which occurred in Nov. 1807. Also, who is the widow Hannah (b before 1775) who appears on the 1820 census with Michael, Peter & John? These are all questions which could probably be answered by a trip to the courthouse at Portsmouth.

I also spent some time on those across the river in Kentucky.
We have a John Laudaback in Mason County in 1796. From 1799 thru 1804, John was taxed on 250 acres lying in Scott Co., Ky; however, from 1805 thru 1815 he was in Fleming County, and then disappears.

Andrew Louderback (b by 1765) is in Mason County as early as 1796, where, on the 1800 delinquent tax list we find the comment "gone to Nicholas County." He is on the 1810 census of Nicholas County, but may have died in Harrison County in 1815 [need to see will Bk B:98, as an Andrew Louderback is also on the 1820 census of Harrison Co - census not read, just index]. You will note that an Andrew Louderback paid tax in Mifflin Township, Allegheney County, Pennsylvania in 1791, but was gone by 1800.

Peter Louderback (bef 1755) - I feel certain that he is the same Peter of Allegheney County, Pennsylvania. I need to run the Harrison County records to see what happened to him.

Abraham Louderback (b bef 1765) was in Fayette in 1789, Woodford in 1790, Scott County in 1795, and back in Woodford again by 1810.

There are individual sheets enclosed which reflect the results of my searching and analyzing the above, but these should be used with caution due to the need for more documentation to support my theories.

I have followed these with a complete set of the Michael Louderback family records.

On the Hessian soldier approach - you had written that a John Lauterbach, as a prisoner, worked for Martin Hegey at Warwick - there were lots of HEGY/Hege, etc. (including Martin) who were members of the Warwick Lutheran Congregation near Brickerville, Pa. I have a copy of those early translated and transcribed church records (1743-1799) (due to the involvement there of the Pastor Stoever, the subject of the book which won the NGS award last year) but did not find a reference to the surname Louderback in it.

From the 1790 census, we knew that a Michael Louderback resided in Lancaster County, as well as the one in Washington County. Enclosed is a reference to the 1822 estate file of the one from Lancaster County.

In closing, all indications point to Conrad Louderback as the progenitor of your family. I suspect that he is the Conrad LAUTERBACH who arrived here with Philip in 1749. That would make him of about the right age. So, where were they immediately afterwards? Some of these early Germans went into the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia; some were in the Suusex County, NJ/Northampton/Berks Co., Pa., area and moved over into the Northumberland Co., Pa., area, and some stayed around Lancaster, Lebanon, Dauphin counties for a while. — [illegible]

Several things still should be done:

[illegible] Conrad L.E. [illegible] sons Peter & John

1) now that we have a land patent, we need to locate the patent and subsequent deeds. ?
2) search for a will or estate file for Conrad. How did Peter get the land? Right
3) when did Peter sell this land? Right
4) try to determine how Barbara Louderback got the property in McKees Port by 1798. — Not [illegible]
5) do court records of Scioto County to identify the progenitor of this group
6) do court records of Harrison Co., Ky., for death or removal of Peter.
7) check Indiana and Illinois for some evidence of the various groups coming together again in the same communities.
8) recheck the Pa. Archives - all series.

I really do not want to admit to the amount of hours spent analyzing and working the problem - but will admit to two full days of actual research time, plus some travel expense, 1 hour reporting time and 13 copies, as accounted for below.

Please copy and return the packet, as this was the easiest way to let you study the information accumulated to date, without expending additional time and money copying it locally.

respectfully submitted,

Dear Jan Stevenson,

Thanks for your letter. I don't think I know Edgar Dennis, but my cousin David Louderback in Puyallup may have told him that I've looked into Louderback family history. The FGS you sent lists Dave and my ancestors: Michael Louderback (jr) and Rachel Robbins. Their son, Lorenzo Dow is our great grandfather, his son David Michael our grandfather. David Michael's son, Leonard D., is cousin Dave's father, and David Michael's daughter, Ida Mae, is my mom.

I got most of my information for Patricia Donaldson, a professional genealogist of Brown County. She is also working on the Robbins and Kaye families of Brown County. Another of her clients, Bill Fogle (descendant of Michael's brother, Peter Louderback) has also much information on the family. See his letter to me for his address (copy enclosed). I'm sure he will be pleased to share his information as well.

I asked Mrs. Donaldson to look for the first of my ancestors to cross the pond from Germany and she came up with the Conrad Louderback who came across with his brother Phillip in 1749 on the ship Ranier to Philadelphia (copy enclosed). Her FGS for Conrad and his wife Barbara (copy enclosed) shows Michael (Sr.) as having been baptised 16 May 1762 in York County, Pa.

Also enclosed are copies of her FGSs for Conrad's sons Peter and Michael (Sr.). I don't have one for Milford, who like Peter married a Dennis girl. The note on Michael's son Milford (from the back side of the FGS) is pretty quaint.

FGS on Michael (jr) and of a letter obtained from the Dennis's (script and typed versions) are also enclosed.

Finally, in one her her several mailings to me, Mrs. Donaldson included FGS's on numerous descendants of Michael (Sr.) but I returned them as my interest has been focused as I noted above. I enclose a copy of one of her letters for two reasons. First, for her address, and second so you can get a feeling for her style of working.

I hope this has been of some help. Please phone me at (619) 274-3607 if you have questions.

Yours sincerely,

Richard Eppley
